BRIDGE LIGHTING IS FAULTY

Improper Wiring And Inspection Cause, Bingham Says

CONDITION IS UNSIGHTLY

Fifteen Standards On Seven Structures Are Useless

Improper wiring and faulty inspection of the work when the bridges were erected in 1916-1917, is held responsible by C. A. Bingham, city manager, for the fact that 15 of the 56 electric light standards on the seven bridges spanning the Ottawa river are lightless.

A survey made of the concrete bridges, as to lighting facilities, disclosed that the Main-st bridge is the only one completely lighted. Bridges at Elizabeth, West and Pierce-sts are improperly wired, according to the city manager. They cannot be lighted until warm weather permits concrete work to be changed, he asserted. All the lights on the east side of the Elizabeth-st bridge are out of commission. Four globes are missing and the bridge presents a lop-sided appearance, day and night.

West and Pierce-st bridges each have one side of the structures fully equipped. Two globes are either broken or missing altogether on the other side.

GLOBES ARE MISSING

Three globes are missing from the Pine-st bridge and at Elm-st, one of the globes is broken. It was not explained at city hall why these lights have been permitted to exist in an unsightly condition for weeks. It was stated at the engineer's office that new globes were to be placed Tuesday.

The Central-av bridge is without lighting facilities. It was built by the county and several efforts have been made, Bingham declared, to persuade the county commissioners to erect standards. County officials have refused the city engineer to furnish estimate of the cost, it is stated.

Eight broken standards in the boulevard lighting districts are broken, but will soon be replaced, Bingham asserted. New standards have been purchased from the Westinghouse company, the order having been placed January 4, as soon as possible after an appropriation was available, Bingham declared.

U. S. IS ASKED TO SAVE WORLD

Councils Of Churches Request Help In Europe

WASHINGTON—(United Press).—Believing that the world is drifting to a war of proportions that may cause the eclipse of civilization for centuries, the federal council of churches today made an urgent call for the American government to save the world from chaos by helping Europe to straighten out its tangled affairs.

The council, especially urged two courses of action as follows:

That the United States take the initiative in calling an international conference to consider the economic and political situation in Europe, its reparations, debts and armaments the hope of prevailing on Europe to sign a treaty similar to that negotiated at the Washington arms conference.

That this government renounce its policy of aloofness from international affairs and assume full share of the responsibility in the settlement of international problems.

NEW IS NAMED AS POSTAL CHIEF

Work Nominated To Succeed Fall As Interior Secretary

WASHINGTON—(United Press).—President Harding today named Postmaster General Work to be secretary of the interior, succeeding Albert B. Fall, whose resignation is effective March 4.

To succeed Work as head of the postoffice department, the president named Senator Harry New of Indiana, recently defeated for re-nomination.

The nominations were sent to the senate today.

In putting New in the cabinet, the president is standing by an old friend. Some factions of the Republican party in Indiana have been bitterly opposed to the appointment. New is considered one of the ablest political leaders in the party.

Work, being a western man, has been keenly interested in matters coming under the jurisdiction of the interior department.

Now is 64 years old. He was born in Indianapolis and spent most of his life in Indiana. He was elected to the senate in 1914, but was defeated for re-nomination by Senator Beveridge in the primaries last year. Work is 62. He was born in Indiana-co, Pa. For many years he was a prominent physician. President Harding first named him as assistant postmaster general and then elevated him to the head of the department when Will Hays resigned to become czar of the movie.

Nation At Testing Time, Federal Dry Chief Declares

CITIZENS MUST LINE UP

Counted For Or Against Constitution, He Says

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press).—The United States is at the testing time when every citizen must stand up and be counted for or against the constitution, National Prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haynes declared in an address today before a joint session of the Ohio legislature.

"This generation of Americans must determine positively and definitely whether or not it is able to make and enforce its own law," he continued. "This, in my humble opinion, is the greatest problem confronting America today."

Complimenting the Ohio law makers, Haynes said he believed the Ohio prohibition enforcement code was the most practical adopted in any state. He pointed out that under the Ohio dry laws, in 22 months, fines and taxes collected against violators totalled $2,622,000 at a total cost of enforcement of $216,000.

PLEA FOR SUPPORT

Haynes' address concerned itself primarily with a defense of prohibition and its enforcement, and a plea for greater public support.

"It is not enough that a man shall obey the law and enjoy the privilege of business secured to him under the law," he said, "but it is the duty of the good citizen to constitute himself as far as his abilities permit, a guardian and a defender of the law. He is a short sighted American who fails to see in the bootlegger of today the spirit of the anarchist and bolshevik."

"It is time that the citizen upon whom we depend to uphold our Americanism awakens to the realization that bootlegging is not a mere peccadillo but a nefarious and traitorous business."

"The attitude of many men admittedly of high standing and great influence in their respective social, professional or business spheres is surprising. When men of standing and influence violate the prohibition laws there is reason for grave concern."

FIGURES CITED

Citing figures from Ohio and other states to show that prohibition enforcement is a success, Haynes asserted that "no nullity the prohibition laws or to repeat they will cure no evils that rise the liquor traffic, but will set a precedent and make it easier to nullify any law that may be rendered difficult of enforcement through propaganda or un-American prejudice."

"The Volstead act," he continued, "is the speaker, and to make the eighteenth amendment operative will give all law an added weight of authority in the public mind and proof is not wanting to show that there will be removed one of the nation's chief sources of all law violations."

"As a people, we have nothing to fear from without. No great foreign foe is prepared to jump at us with sudden ruthlessness, but the enemy that is to be feared is the one that is under the guise of mock patriotism, shammed personal liberty, non-observance of law and the like, creeps up, unawares, and threatens to undermine the very fundamentals which have been responsible for our great growth as a nation and prosperity and happiness as a people."

3 RECEIVERSHIPS LINKED WITH DISCOUNT COMPANY

CLEVELAND—Three receiverships will have effect today in connection with the affairs of the Cleveland Discount Company.

Two have direct bearings on the Discount Company's affairs and the third concerns a firm in which the discount company holds controlling stock.

With Attorney Thomas J. Hoggsett, he was appointed discount company receiver in common pleas court last week.

Monday he was named with Attorney Donald Thompson, Pittsburg, as receiver for the Sharon-Prosper Steel Company, Sharon, Pa., in which the Cleveland company has a $2,400,000 interest.

Discount company officials today declared the receivership proceedings are "for the purpose of protecting the rights of all parties interested."

FORGERIES ADMITTED

CINCINNATI—Louis H. Brettenbach, president of the Brettenbach Linotype Company, admitted forgeries amounting to $22,500 on the Baldwin Law Publishing Company at the preliminary hearing of Karl Mog, in municipal court. CASE IS PUZZLE

SLAYER OF GIRL UNDER GUARD

Mob Threatens Self-Confessed Abductor At Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA—(United Press).—The body of little six-year-old Lillian Gilmore, victim of a fiendish kidnaper, was found frozen in the Nashaminy creek near Croyden, Pa., last midnight.

Wylie Morgan, self-confessed abductor, will be formally charged with murder today, authorities said.

A crowd of several hundred persons gathered around the police station when word of the confession was spread and shouted threats of violence against the prisoner.

The station, in the heart of the Kensington mill section, was put under extra guard and armed men filled the doorway, standing off the mob.

The body of the little girl was found after Morgan confessed to the crime. He guided the police to the creek where he had thrown the body and cried, "there she is, I killed her," police said.

Five men, holding lanterns high so they might peer into the darkness, were taking the body from the icy water. The little girl's body showed signs of a terrible beating. A superficial examination revealed her jaw broken in five places, her arms, hands and legs were cut. Police believe Morgan, beat Lillian, a five-year-old girl, to death.

News of Morgan's confession and the finding of the body spread rapidly through the northeast section of Philadelphia, where the Gilmore family lives, and when the murderer was returned to the police station, a crowd of about 5,000 men, women and children.

Cries of "lynch him" and "kill him" were heard. Twenty policemen armed with sawed off shotguns and rifles guarded the prisoner during the night to prevent the angry crowd from storming the station.

Morgan, according to police, invited Dorothy S. and Lillian Gilmore, 6, to take an automobile ride. Later Dorothy wandered home and told about a man killing Lillian and casting her body on the ice.

A citywide search for the murderer began. Morgan was arrested on suspicion and after 33 hours of constant grilling, confessed. He led five policemen to where he had thrown the body. He raised a man ailed wrist and said: "There," pointing to a dark object on the ice about 25 feet from the shore.

U. S. FLYING BOATS ENTER GREAT SPEED CONTEST

WASHINGTON—The navy entered today three flying boats today in the competition for the Jacques Schneider aviation marine trophy, valued at 25,000 francs, to be staged near the Isle of Wight next summer.

This is the first time the United States has entered the event.

It is a test of speed and seaworthiness over a course of 200 nautical miles, the pilots having to land twice and taxi half a mile on the surface at a speed of twelve knots.

Entries were made by the National Aeronautic Association on behalf of the Bureau of Aeronautics of the navy department. England, France, Belgium and Italy also will compete.

PIKE OFFICIALS ARE THREATENED

Last November Election Likely To Be Declared Illegal

RESULT OF INVESTIGATION

Votes Paid For — Republican Drops Legislature Claim

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press).—Harry L. Foster, Republican, today conceded that he cannot be seated as the state representative for Pike-co, before the special committee, of the house of representatives which is hearing the Pike-co election contest.

Foster's counsel conceded after concluding their evidence, that it would be impossible to identify enough illegal votes to overcome the majority of 114 by which Robert S. Wynn, Democrat, was declared elected representative.

The question now to be decided by the committee is whether Wynn is eligible to retain his seat in the legislature.

SUBPOENAS CANCELLED

On the admission that Foster could not be seated, counsel for Mr. Wynn immediately cancelled subpoenas for practically all their witnesses, especially those who would have testified as to alleged irregularities of Republicans. The only witnesses which the defense will call are those to offset damaging testimony against Mr. Wynn. The defense had 98 witnesses to summon.

It is known that members of the committee consider that conditions in Pike-co are such that a fair election is being conducted, has not been gone into by the committee, it is understood. Neither has it been considered whether a finding that no legal election was conducted in Pike-co would in any manner serve to invalidate the election of county officials.

Testimony offered by the first defense witnesses tended to cast as deep reflection on the Republicans as testimony of prosecution witnesses had cast upon the Democrats.

MONEY RECEIVED

Three witnesses declared they had received money for voting about voters' ballots from Republican workers, two saying they had been paid ten dollars each and one testifying that he had received $15.

William Bostie of Waverly, the first defense witness, testified that Dr. R. M. Andrie had paid him $10 for voting but about voter's ballot at Republican headquarters and that Dr. Andrie had told him he would not get into trouble for accepting the money. On cross-examination Bostie admitted that he had received money on other occasions for voting but insisted that he had not sold his vote.

David L. Oty said he had been paid $15 by Arthur Bandy, court house custodian, after voting a Republican ticket at the Republican headquarters. He asserted that a Democrat in Seal township had offered him $12 to vote the Democrat ticket but that he refused as he was a Republican.

"If I'd voted the Democrat ticket, I'd been selling my vote," Oty declared.

That he and his brother Sam each had been paid $10 for voting the Republican ticket was declared on the witness stand by William Blake. He said Arthur Bandy marked his ticket for him in the office of Levi P. Moore, county prosecutor.

The money, he said, was paid later on the street by "Back" Swartz. Blake said he had received money for voting about 25 years ago and that he always voted a straight Republican ticket.

DERAILED TRAIN IS SUPPORTED BY ICE; PASSENGERS UNHURT

ORANGE, Mass.—Passengers on Boston and Maine railroad train had a thrilling experience and remarkable escape from serious injury today when two of three coaches jumped the rails, plunged down a 15-foot embankment and slid out on the ice of Miller's river. The ice supported the cars and the passengers were unharmed to safety. The third car stopped on the embankment.

Four of the train crew were slightly hurt.

Spreading rails caused the accident, officials said.

Others injured and who will recover are:

U. S. Steiner, 63, husband of the dead woman, scalp wounds.

The Steiner family was enroute to Pandora, when they collided, head-on with a White Mountain Creamery truck, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bunke. Fog obscured the vision of both drivers, they stated.

The force of the collision crumpled both radiators back against the windshields.

Jess Steiner, the son, was driving and his parents were in the rear seat, at the time of the accident. Mrs. Steiner was cut across the forehead, just above the eye and also received a cut on the forehead in line with the nose, making an inverted "T" on her forehead.

Both drivers claimed to be on the right side of the road and neither could give a thorough account of the accident, police reported.

BANKER, SHOT BY BANDITS, DIES

Victim Of Holdup At Mount Pleasant, Ohio

STUEBENVILLE, Ohio—(United Press).—The bandit car was found abandoned at Dillonvale today four hours after the death of Harry D. Price, assistant cashier of the Mount Pleasant Peoples' National Bank, who was shot Saturday by a holdup man.

Price died at a Wheeling, W. Va., hospital.

The license plate of the abandoned bloodstained automobile had been removed. In the rear seat were bloody bandages, bearing out, police believe, the claim of E. B. Jones, cashier of the Mount Pleasant Bank, that he wounded one of the bandits during the holdup.

Finding the car was the signal for reforming posse and the re-sounding of the alarm along all highways leading from Dillonvale. The automobile was still warm when it was found.

Police believe the bandits abandoned it about 7 a. m.

Two men held here and two others at Mt. Gleed are not now believed to be connected with the holdup.

Four men entered the bank Saturday morning, fired three shots into the body of Assistant Cashier Price and fled without obtaining any funds when their fire was returned by Cashier Jones.

The abandoned automobile, a large green touring model, answers the description of the one in which the bandits fled.

NEW ROBBERIES

WHEELING, W. Va.—(Associated Press).—Harry E. Price, assistant cashier of the People's Bank of Mount Pleasant, Ohio, who was shot by bandits last Saturday died in a hospital here early today.

Price was shot by one of two bandits when he failed to heed the command, "hands up."

The bullet lodged above a kidney, and since he was admitted to the hospital, two operations were performed in an effort to save his life.

A number of suspects have been arrested in connection with the case. Five banks of Mount Pleasant, Smith and Dillonvale, today advertised rewards of $1,000 for the capture of the man who shot Price and $200 for his accomplice.

An abandoned automobile, believed to be the one in which the bandits escaped from Mount Pleasant, was found on a road near Dillonvale today. Shortly after the car was found, the police discovered that a pool room and a restaurant there had been robbed during the night.

The authorities expressed the belief that the bandits robbed the restaurant and pool room to obtain food and cigarettes and were in hiding near here. Poses were formed and a general hunt was instituted.

Authorities however, are continuing to hold Lee in jail here on federal charge, the nature of which was not disclosed.

MILLIONAIRE SHOT TO DEATH

New York Man's Body Is Found In His Auto

LINKED WITH LOVE AFFAIRS

Housekeeper Detained As Material Witness In Case

NEW YORK—(United Press).—A woman seen hurrying from the scene of the tragedy, was sought today by police attempting to solve the mysterious murder of Frederick Schneider, 46, reputed millionaire contractor, whose body with two bullet wounds in the head, was found late yesterday at the wheel of his automobile on the lonely Sea View-av road.

Two other women, one the wife from whom Schneider had separated and the other his housekeeper, who police said, was known by several persons as Mrs. Schneider, are being questioned by authorities in efforts to run down the "mysterious woman" believed to have been the murderer.

The housekeeper, Mrs. Anna Buzzi, 35, was questioned by detectives for six hours during the night. Afterwards she was detained in the 46th precinct police station as a material witness.

In the meantime the police probed deeper into the love affairs of the dead man. They learned, they said, that the former husband of Mrs. Buzzi, the housekeeper, had divorced her, naming Schneider as correspondent several years ago. Since that time she has been his housekeeper. It was declared.

Mrs. Minnie Schneider, his wife, had come to on friendly terms with the contractor, despite the separation, police declared, and frequently visited his office and took an interest in his affairs.

FOUND BY FARMER

The body of Schneider was found, one hand clasping the wheel of his luxurious car, by Nicholas Fulmer, a farmer living near Glasgow Point, but the latter had been attracted to the scene by two shots, and a woman running away. Fulmer called police and Patrolman James Doyle opened the car door. Inside two clown dogs, inseparable companions and pets of Schneider, barked and snarled in defiance as he sought to touch the dead man.

The body, stocky and of athletic build, was in position of one driving. While the one hand held the steering wheel, the other rested half way in a pocket and clutched a glove. On the floor lay a revolver, two sham-bled and snarled in defiance as he sought to touch the dead man.

Schneider's wallet, containing considerable money and valuables, were found in his clothing, leading police to abandon any theory of robbery. They said, however, that in the past the contractor had been investigated for reported trouble with laborers.

The contractor specialized in excavation work. His income was declared to have been $1,000,000 a year, recently.

Following the shooting, members of the union fled. When police arrived, the hall was empty.

Kinsella was found dead a few blocks away. Raden was taken to the hospital by persons attracted by the shots.

Police attempted to round up members of the union who were present in an effort to learn the motive for the shooting.

BANKERS ACT TO CURB BOOM

Forbes Explains Reason For Rise In Rediscount Rate

ANSWER TO COMPLAINT

Need For Restraint Is Pointed Out By Writer

(BY B. C. FORBES)
NEW YORK. (Special) — "Somebody's always taking the joy out of life."

That is the tenor of some business men's comment on the raising of the Federal Reserve rediscount rate at New York and Boston. They complain, rather bitterly, that it was the tightening of the money screws by the Federal Reserve Board which "spoiled the last boom."

And they ask somewhat testily if these same functionaries are bent upon spoiling the fine business now getting under way.

To come straight to the point my opinion is that the action just taken is prudent, inspired by foresight, gotten by intimate knowledge of financial economic laws, and history.

Booms are abnormal things.

And the abnormal doesn't last. Good times, on the other hand, are or ought to be normal in a young vigorous fertile land like America with its unlimited resources, agricultural, mineral, commercial financial.

The increasing of the rediscount rate at the monetary center of the country is calculated to restrain boom developments which would inevitably lead us into trouble. It is calculated to preserve sane, healthy, sound, satisfactory conditions.

Do you argue that no boom was coming, that no boom was within sight, that no boom was possible?

Then you have not been following recent developments with a keen scrutinizing analytical eye.

I'm not writing this within reach of my records. Yet these facts come pressing into my mind faster than I can write them down:

Railway traffic has been breaking all records.

Iron and steel output exceeds all peace-time figures.

Building is booming beyond all precedent.

More cotton spindles—forty millions—are operating than ever before in either peace-time or war-time.

Postal receipts are enormous.

Automobile factories are turning out new cars at an unparalleled rate.

The oil industry is booming.

Woolen manufacturers cannot cope with the avalanche of orders now swamping them.

Silk mills are almost in the same position.

Sugar prices are soaring to new heights.

Copper has been rushing upwards and is now at the highest level since the post-war boom collapsed.

Steel, lead, tin have all risen this week.

Cotton quotations have just broken into new high reaches for the season.

The cost of living is rising despite the relatively poor returns being received by grain growers and growers of other foodstuffs—the index numbers for February are bound to reveal an appreciable rise.

Labor is becoming scarce, wages have begun to move upwards and you can count upon very important developments in this direction.

The volume of money being borrowed from the banks has expanded quite sharply lately.

Interest rates have been stiffening.

Wall street has been indulging in a spectacular series of "million share days."

The average quotation for industrial stocks has been booming inordinately until it has broken through all previous "tops" since the spring of 1920. Railroad stocks latterly have joined the upward procession, thanks to notably better earnings.

Bonds have enjoyed a market of extraordinary breadth and resiliency, its digestion of a bewildering variety of new offerings having been without precedent.

If this little list—and it is little in comparison with what could be enumerated—does not contain indications of boom symptoms, then what does it indicate?

You can safely take my word for it that it contains quite as many boom symptoms as are desirable at this stage of our recovery from very serious economic sickness.

To get the most good out of a horse you must not overdrive him.

To get the most good out of a business revival you must not overdrive it.

If we will only be careful not to over-drive, not to go ahead at break-neck speed, all should be well for many months to come.

The raising of the rediscount rate at New York is a timely, salutary warning against overspending.

WAPAK MAN DIES

John M. Roberts, 76, lifelong resident of Anguilla, died at his home in Wapakoneta, from pneumonia, survived by his widow and six children.

SPRINGTIME NEAR; JOYTIME FOR ALL

Perhaps you noticed it. Ted did and just couldn't remain indoors.

There was a "tang" of spring in the air Tuesday. It was apparent to most everyone. Of course, it doesn't mean that flowers will be blooming and garden making in progress before the week-end, but there is a certain something which indicates the most acceptable season of the year is not far off.

Rather cheerful comment in the face of prediction of possible snow, but it's justified, nevertheless. Fair tonight, slightly colder in south portion. Wednesday unsettled and somewhat warmer. Probably light snow or rain in north portion.

Those who are "longing for that good old springtime" are watching the clouds.

The "first robbers" here, boys are playing marbles, kite flying will soon be in vogue and the palms of the kiddies are just itching to get hold of a base ball and encircle a bat with their fingers.

"Fish talk" will be the next thing, over on Elizabeth-st., in Orow's gun shop and at various other places where disciples of the gentle art of Isaac Walton are wont to gather.

That springtime is near means coming joytime.

Industry Becoming Paralyzed As Result Of Invasion

BIG FACTORIES TO CLOSE

Situation Desired By France, Described By Writer

(BY WEBB MILLER)
DUESSELDORF.—(United Press) Rust—miles upon miles, a rusted network of railways, roundhouses filled with rusted locomotives, cars with rusting wheels on silent sidings—that is the most striking, the most tell-tale evidence of the success or failure of the occupation of the Ruhr. It is more informative than any official interview or statistics.

On an automobile ride thru a dozen or more Ruhr towns, I observed the extension of the red rust which marks the creeping paralysis overcoming the nervous system of the great industrial organism. One by one the tall smokestacks everywhere hedging the horizon, are ceasing to smoke as the paralysis reaches them.

Already 50,000 persons are idle in the Ruhr valley and their number will increase from now on in a growing ratio.

STOCKS DIMINISHING

Hundreds of thousands of others are engaged in non-productive work. Raw material and stocks are fast diminishing, meaning that the factories must soon shut down.

From one viewpoint this paralysis shows the success of Franco-Belgian aims. Owing to the resistance of Germany's industrialists, the French and Belgians feel they must paralyze the occupied area to force capitulation.

But the glare of the red rust reflects the failure of the invaders to procure reparations in coal—one of the avowed objects of the occupation. Officials now admit the impossibility of obtaining an appreciable amount of coal unless and until the Westphalian mines decide to work under orders of the French and Belgians.

My impression is that it is now the purpose of occupiers to bring about a situation under which the industrialists and the workers will give in and decide not to oppose the aims of the occupation.

Altho the French officials avoid using the ugly word, that condition can be summed up in a word.

"Hunger."

REPORT TO POLICE MAY PROVIDE CLUE IN CASE OF BLOWING OF SAFE

The only clue police have received as to the identity of the yeggs who blew the safe at the Hoover-Roush company, 204 N. Main-st., Sunday night or early Monday morning and escaped with $1,471 in currency and $50 in old coins, is in a report made by Edward Van Burg, 210 E. McKibben-st., to the effect that he saw three men drive up and stop at the C. A. Ladden soda drink cafe, 451 N. Main-st., at 1:30 a. m. Monday. They left their car there and walked south. They returned in two hours, along the west side of the street, carrying a traveling bag. Van Burg stated, "The men jumped into the car and drove north at a rapid rate."

Police have a good description of the men, one of whom had a white handkerchief around his neck. All were stockily built, weighing from 180 to 200 pounds each, Van Burg said.

CHILDREN TESTIFY IN ASSAULT CASE

Alva Phillips Goes On Trial In Common Pleas Court

ACCUSED BY YOUNG GIRL

Jury Chosen And Witness Examination Opens

Testimony of two 12-year-old children, a boy and a girl, may prove the strongest links in the trial of Alva Phillips, charged with assault upon Zelma Lippincott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lippincott, residing five-miles east of Lima on the Marion-rd. The assault is alleged to have occurred on the morning of October 19, 1922.

Soon after the jury was chosen, Wilbur Severns, 12-year-old schoolmate of Zelma Lippincott, was called to the witness stand. Wilbur testified that, riding his bicycle to school, he passed Zelma and her sister, and then a few rods farther on, passed and conversed with Phillips. Zelma related that she saw Phillips ahead of her, and saw him hide behind some bushes. She then told how Phillips sprang out and grabbed her as she walked past the bushes; how he made insulting demands; and how he tore off her underclothing. She also testified that her sister ran down the road in an effort to secure aid.

Zelma, modest and shy, presented a pathetic picture as she sat in the witness chair and related the sorrowful details of the alleged attack.

During the selection of the jurors, Phillips appeared calm and unmoved, as he did when the damaging evidence was being introduced. His wife, who has remained loyal to Phillips, smiled and spoke to several acquaintances as she took her chair at the side of her husband.

She maintained a cheerful countenance throughout the morning, in strong contrast to the deeply serious expression of the charges against her son, who sat most of the morning with bowed head and closed eyes.

The jury finally selected to hear the case comprises 11 men and one woman. They are: Jettie Bible, Martin Dilling, Frank Schenk, A. J. Stull, C. J. Stodts, J. O. Holson, D. A. Bowsher, W. S. Shook, E. Smoof, D. H. Verlies, W. G. Heffner and C. J. Miller.

Indications at noon Tuesday seemed to indicate that the case would go to the jury late in the afternoon.

SCHOOL MAN DIES

Jesse W. Clark, 58, for 42 years a school teacher and a beneficiary under the Ohio teacher's pension law, died suddenly from heart-lesion at his residence in St. Marys. Surviving are the widow and one son.

OPITUARY

Mary Irene, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Simmonds, was born near Westminster, Ohio, Feb. 2, 1881, her whole life was lived and spent in this vicinity. In her younger years during the tenure of Rev. Father, in 1888 she was converted and identified herself with the Salem M. E. church, remaining a faithful member till the end of her life. In 1921 she was united in marriage with W. E. Ream, with whom she spent only fourteen years as a constant companion and devoted wife.

Her last illness was of about a year's duration which suffering she bore with much patience. There was one of home life—in serving others—over mindful of her aged parents and afflicted brother who will ever treasure her loving deeds and kindness.

Her death is a sad one. She was enjoying life in its fullest measure and was anxious to live on and on but when the end seemed to be near, she said, "It is all right, if I go."

On Feb. 20, 1923 her spirit returned to Him who gave it, her age being 42 years, 10 months and 18 days.

She leaves to mourn what seems to us, an untimely departure, her loving and faithful companion, an aged father and mother, one brother and a host of neighbors and friends.

40 HOURS' DEVOTION TO CLOSE TUESDAY EVENING AT ST. GERARD'S CHURCH

Forty Hours' Devotion, which has been in progress at St. Gerard's church, will come to a solemn close Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. There will be a short sermon by the Rev. James Clark. This ceremony will be followed by a procession and benediction. The celebrant of the closing exercise will be the newly ordained priest, Rev. Father Robert O'Connor.

NEW OVERHEAD IS CONSIDERED

Plan To Eliminate Pennsylvania R. R. Grade Crossing

Definite progress toward the erection of a viaduct over the Pennsylvania Railroad is expected to be made in a meeting Tuesday afternoon of county commissioners, city commissioners, Pennsylvania engineers and several interested citizens.

The joint committee met at 1:30 p. m. at the county commissioner's office and after a discussion, in which the aims of the different representations were set forth, the committee made an inspection of the section of the city where the viaduct is proposed to be erected.

One fact brought out at the meeting was that it was thought for the best interests of the future growth of the city that the viaduct should be east of Metcalf-st.

Following the completion of the inspection, recommendation will be made to the county, the city and the Pennsylvania Railroad concerning the location of the viaduct.

The point apparently most favored for the overhead bridge, to eliminate a grade crossing at the Pennsylvania tracks, is at Pierce-st, it is stated.

BANKERS ACT TO CURB BOOM

Forbes Explains Reason For Raising in Rediscount Rate

ANSWER TO COMPLAINT

Need For Restraint Is Pointed Out By Writer

(BY B. C. FORBES)
NEW YORK — (Special) — "Somebody's always taking the joy out of life."

That is the tenor of some business men's comment on the raising of the Federal Reserve rediscount rate at New York and Boston. They complain, rather bitterly, that it is the tightening of the money screws by the Federal Reserve Board which "spoiled the last boom."

And they ask somewhat testily if these same functionaries are bent upon spoiling the fine business now getting under way.

To come straight to the point my opinion is that the action just taken is prudent, inspired by foresight, begotten by intimate knowledge of financial economic laws and history.

Booms are abnormal things.

And the abnormal doesn't last. Good times, on the other hand, are or ought to be normal in a young vigorous fertile land like America with its unlimited resources, agricultural, mineral, commercial, financial.

The increasing of the rediscount rate at the monetary center of the country is calculated to restrain boom developments which would inevitably lead us into trouble.

It is calculated to preserve sane, healthy, sound, satisfactory conditions.

Do you argue that no boom was coming, that no boom was within sight, that no boom was possible?

Then you have not been following recent developments with a keen scrutinizing analytical eye.

I'm not writing this within reach of my records. Yet these facts come pressing into my mind faster than I can write them down:

Railway traffic has been breaking all records.

Iron and steel output exceeds all peace-time figures.

Building is booming beyond all precedent.

More cotton spinning—forty millions—are operating than ever before in either peace-time or war-time.

Postal receipts are enormous.

Automobile factories are turning out new cars at an unparalleled rate.

The oil industry is booming.

Woolen manufacturers cannot cope with the avalanche of orders now swamping them.

Silk mills are almost in the same position.

Sugar prices are soaring to new heights.

Copper has been rushing upwards and is now at the highest level since the post-war boom collapsed.

Steel, lead, tin have all risen this week.

Cotton quotations have just broken into new high reaches for the season.

The cost of living is rising despite the relatively poor returns being received by grain growers and growers of other foodstuffs—the index numbers for February are bound to reveal an appreciable rise.

Labor is becoming scarce, wages have begun to move upwards and you can count upon very important developments in this direction.

The volume of money being borrowed from the banks has expanded quite sharply lately.

Interest rates have been stiffening.

Wall street has been indulging in a spectacular series of "million share days."

The average quotation for industrial stocks has been booming irregularly until it has broken through all previous "tops" since the spring of 1920. Railroad stocks lately have joined the upward procession, thanks to notably better earnings.

Bonds have enjoyed a market of extraordinary breadth and resiliency, its digestion of a bewildering variety of new offerings having been without precedent.

It is little list—and it is little in comparison with what could be enumerated—does not contain indications of boom symptoms, then what does it indicate?

You can safely take my word for it that it contains quite as many boom symptoms as are desirable at this stage of our recovery from very serious economic sickness.

To get the most good out of a horse you must not overdrive him. To get the most good out of a business revival you must not overdrive it.

If we will only be careful not to over-drive, not to go head at break-neck speed, all will be well for many months to come.

The raising of the rediscount rate at New York is a timely, salutary warning against overdriving.

FOUND NOT GUILTY OF MURDERING HUSBAND

STUTTGART, Ark. — Theatre crowds patiently waited until 1:30 o'clock this morning for the final curtain in the strangest drama that has been enacted on the local stage.

And when the end came with the acquittal of Mrs. Mabel Potter Kruse, University of Arkansas, graduate, of a charge of murdering her husband, the crowd broke in a demonstration as enthusiastic as ever accorded an actor.

WAPAK MAN DIES

John M. Roberts, 74, lifelong resident of Anguise-co, died at his home in Wapakoneta, from pneumonia, survived by his widow and six children.

SPRINGTIME NEAR; JOYTIME FOR ALL

Perhaps you noticed it. Ted did and just couldn't remain indoors. There was a "tang" of spring in the air Tuesday. It was apparent to most everyone. Of course, it doesn't mean that flowers will be blooming and garden making in progress before the week-end, but there is a certain something which indicates the most acceptable season of the year is not far off.

Rather cheerful comment in the face of prediction of possible snow, but it's justified, nevertheless. Fair tonight, slightly colder in south portion. Wednesday unsettled and somewhat warmer. Probably light snow or rain in north portion.

Those who are "watching for signs of its coming. The "first robin" is here, boys are soon to be in vogue and the palms of the kiddies are just itching to get hold of a base ball and encircle a bat with their fingers.

"Fish talk" will be the next thing, over on Elizabeth-st., in Grog's gun shop and at various other places where disciples of the gentle art of Isaac Walton are wont to gather.

That springtime is near means coming joytime.

The power line to be sold is between Lima and Wapakoneta. All parties connected with the traction company consented to the sale, according to word received here.

Two other companions in the alleged crime escaped before the police arrived, police were told.

50,000 PERSONS IDLE IN RUHR

Industry Becoming Paralyzed As Result Of Invasion

BIG FACTORIES TO CLOSE

Situation Desired By France, Described By Writer

(BY WEBB MILLER)

DUESSELDORF—(United Press) Rust—mille upon mille, a rusted network of railways, roundhouses filled with rusted locomotives, cars with rusting wheels on silent sidings—that is the most striking, the most tell-tale evidence of the success or failure of the occupation of the Ruhr. It is more informative than any official interview or statistics.

On an automobile ride thru a dozen or more Ruhr towns, I observed the extension of the red rust which marks the creeping paralysis overcoming the nervous system of the great industrial organism. One by one the tall smokestacks everywhere hedging the horizon, are ceasing to smoke as the paralysis reaches them.

Already 50,000 persons are idle in the Ruhr valley and their number will increase from now on in a growing ratio.

STOCKS DIMINISHING

Hundreds of thousands of others are engaged in non-productive work. Raw material and stocks are fast diminishing, meaning that the factories must soon shut down.

From one viewpoint this paralysis shows the success of Franco-Belgian aims. Owing to the resistance of Germany's industrialists, the French and Belgians feel they must paralyze the occupied area to force capitulation.

But the glare of the red rust reflects the failure of the invaders to procure reparations in coal—one of the avowed objects of the occupation. Officials now admit the impossibility of obtaining an appreciable amount of coal unless and until the Westphalian miners decide to work under orders of the French and Belgians.

My impression is that it is now the purpose of occupiers to bring about a situation under which the industrialists and the workers will give in and decide not to oppose the aims of the occupation.

Altho the French officials avoid using the ugly word, that condition can be summed up in a word: "Hunger."

REPORT TO POLICE MAY PROVIDE CLUE IN CASE OF BLOWING OF SAFE

The only clue police have received as to the identity of the yeggs who blew the safe at the Hoover-Roush company, 204 N. Main-st., Sunday night or early Monday morning and escaped with $1,471 in currency and $50 in old coins, is a report made by Edward Van Burg, 210 N. McKibben-st., to the effect that he saw three men drive up and stop at the C. A. Ladden soft drink cafe, 451 N. Main-st., at 1:30 a. m. Monday. They left their car there and walked south. They returned in two hours, along the west side of the street, carrying a traveling bag, Van Burg stated. The man jumped into the car and drove north at a rapid rate.

Police have a good description of the men, one of whom had a white handkerchief around his neck. All were stockily built, weighing from 180 to 200 pounds each, Van Burg said.

About 300 members from all parts of the state are expected to attend, members of the local committee in charge of arrangements announced Tuesday.

The convention will be called to order at 10 a. m. Thursday by President R. W. Wood of Akron. Following prayer by Rev. Charles A. Hurd, Mayor Cunningham will deliver his welcome and Y. K. Tobias, of Fremont, will give the response.

The morning session will be devoted to routine committee reports. In the afternoon William F. Long of Cleveland will address the association on the "American Plan Association" and H. H. Miller of Cincinnati will speak on "Increasing the Laundry Business."

An open forum will be held for discussion and questions on speakers' remarks. Mrs. Grace Hollister, of Lima, will tell members about "Laundry from a Housewife's Angle."

CHILDREN TESTIFY IN ASSAULT CASE

Alva Phillips Goes On Trial In Common Pleas Court

ACCUSED BY YOUNG GIRL

Jury Chosen And Witness Examination Opens

Testimony of two 12-year-old children, a boy and a girl, may prove the strongest links in the trial of Alva Phillips, charged with assault upon Zelma Lippincott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lippincott, residing five-miles east of Lima on the Marion-rd. The assault is alleged to have occurred on the morning of October 19, 1922.

Soon after the jury was chosen, Wilbur Severns, 12-year-old schoolmate of Zelma Lippincott, was called to the witness stand. Wilbur testified that, riding his bicycle to school, he passed Zelma and her sister, and then a few rods farther on, passed and conversed with Phillips. Zelma related that she saw Phillips ahead of her, and saw him hide behind some bushes. She then told how Phillips sprang out and grabbed her as she walked past the bushes; how he made insulting demands; and how he tore off her underclothing. She also testified that her sister ran down the road in an effort to secure aid.

Zelma, modest and shy, presented a pathetic picture as she sat in the witness chair and related the sordid details of the alleged attack.

ACCUSED IS CALM

During the selection of the jurors, Phillips appeared calm and unmoved, as he did when the damaging evidence was being introduced. His wife, who has remained loyal to Phillips, smiled and spoke to several acquaintances as she took her chair at the side of her husband. She maintained a cheerful mien during the morning, in strong contrast to Phillips' mother, who seemed to feel deeply the seriousness of the charges against her son, who sat most of the morning with bowed head and closed eyes.

The jury finally selected to hear the case comprises 11 men and one woman. They are Jettie Bible, Martha Dibling, Frank Schenk, A. J. Stull, C. A. Stodts, J. O. Helsen, D. A. Bowers, W. S. Shook, E. J. Snook, D. H. Crites, W. G. Heffner and C. D. Miller.

Indications at noon Tuesday seemed to indicate that the case would go to the jury late in the afternoon.

SCHOOL MAN DIES

Her last illness was of about a year's duration which suffering she bore with much patience. Her was one of the most loving and cheerful over mindful of her aged parents and afflicted brother who will never treasure her loving deeds and kindness.

Her death is a sad one. She was enjoying life in its fullest measure and was anxious to go on and on but when the end seemed to be near, she said, "It is all right, I go."

NEW OVERHEAD IS CONSIDERED

Plan To Eliminate Pennsylvania R. R. Grade Crossing

Definite progress toward the erection of a viaduct over the Pennsylvania Railroad is expected to be made in a meeting Tuesday afternoon of county commissioners, city commissioners, Pennsylvania engineers and several interested citizens.

The joint committee met at 1:30 p. m. at the county commissioner's office and after a discussion, in which the aims of the different representations were set forth, the committee made an inspection of the section of the city where the viaduct is proposed to be erected.

One fact brought out at the meeting was that it was thought for the best interests of the future growth of the city that the viaduct should be east of Metcalf-st.

Following the completion of the inspection, recommendation will be made to the county, the city and the Pennsylvania Railroad concerning the location of the viaduct.

The point apparently most favored for the overhead bridge, to eliminate a grade crossing at the Pennsylvania tracks, is at Pierce-st. It is stated.

PIONEER WOMAN DIES

Mrs. Philip Egan, 79, near Collins, died of pneumonia. She was a pioneer resident of Mercer-co.

ADMITS LARCENY

Lee Duff Pleads Guilty to Stealing Keller Auto

Lee Duff, 19, Homewood addition, pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny when arraigned in police court Tuesday morning. He was bound over to the grand jury under a bond of $1,000.

Police claim that Duff, in company with a juvenile 16 years of age, whose name is being withheld, stole an Overland sedan the property of Michael Keller, from in front of his home, 132 W. Circular-st. Sunday night. They drove the car to Ft. Wayne, after throwing the license tags down a sewer and also took the tags from a car belonging to John Miller, Cole-st. and Elida-rd, police assert.

Keller's car was found abandoned on Hazel-av. near Jameco, Monday, with part of the glass broken. Two pistol holsters and empty shells were found in the car.

Police stated that Duff was captured when he returned from Ft. Wayne to get his family and take them to that city.

CANAL WILL CUT EUROPE IN HALF

Navigable Waterway To Link The Rhine And Rhone

$400,000,000 LOAN FLOATED

Backed By French, English And American Capital

(BY HENRY WOOD)

GENEVA.—(United Press).—A navigable waterway, extending from the mouth of the Rhine on the north to the mouth of the Rhone on the Mediterranean, cutting western Europe thus in half, is one of the latest projects of European reconstruction, which is soon to become a reality.

When the task is completed, Switzerland will have attained her century-old ambition of no longer being "interned" and of having direct seaport connections both to the north and to the south.

The plan for a trans-European waterway involves several different projects now being worked on in different countries by different companies but all working into the same general scheme of linking up the Rhine and the Rhone.

The first part of the project which is being worked out by the French government provides for the construction of a navigable canal, paralleling the Rhine from Strasbourg to Bâle.

Strasbourg virtually constitutes the head of navigation on the Rhine owing to the fact that above there the velocity of the current and the presence of rocks renders navigation, if not impossible, at least too costly to be of general utility.

To overcome this plans have been completed for the construction of a canal of 120 kilometers in length. This will render the navigability of the Rhine continuous from its mouth up to Bâle.

USE OF LAKES

From this point, another company will undertake the construction of a navigable waterway that will link up the Rhine and the Rhone. Use will be made of the Swiss chain of lakes and rivers while canals will be constructed where missing lines now exist.

This company, which is backed by French, English and American capital, has $400,000,000 million francs for the enterprise and has just applied to the Swiss Federal council for national support.

Still other companies have been organized in France for perfecting and completing the navigability of the Rhine from the point where the Swiss project will link it up with the Rhine.

Finally, the last great undertaking of the project, and which, as a matter of fact, will be the first to be completed, is the construction at Marseilles of a vast tunnel that will link the Rhone up with the port of Marseilles. The latter will thus become the point of embarkation and debarkation of a vast trans-continental traffic.

The tunnel has a length of only seven kilometers but its piercing required the removal of over 2,500,000 cubic meters of earth, more than twice the amount removed in the construction of the famous Simplon tunnel. Marseilles will have its end of the trans-continental waterway completed next spring.

SLEEPING SICKNESS FOLLOWS INFLUENZA

PHILADELPHIA.—Prominent physicians here, headed by Dr. F. X. Dercum, professor of neurology, and Dr. Albert E. Roussel, professor of medicine at the University of Pennsylvania, are taking a leading part in a world-wide effort to discover a means of relieving victims attacked by sleeping-sickness.

Efforts of the doctors to unravel the mysteries of the disease have thus far met with little success. Scientists, however, are hopeful.

"Sleeping sickness is a misnomer for the disease," according to Dr. Roussel. "The real sleeping sickness is caused by a bite of the tsetse fly, which is found in Africa. The other disease, wrongly called sleeping sickness, is rarely accompanied by long periods of sleep, but the patient is usually in a lethargy or may be wildly delirious."

"The disease consists of minute abscesses in the brain stem and often follows influenza. It is probably due to a germ of the same group as that causing influenza but it does not seem to be communicable, although health laws require that it be reported. There is no case on record in which two members of the same family have had it."

PASTOR RESIGNS

CLYDE, Ohio.—Rev. J. C. B. Stivers, pastor of the Church of Christ here, has resigned. He will retire and make his home in Cleveland. No successor has been named.

After this date I will not be responsible for debts contracted by anyone other than myself.

DOLLAR DAY WILL DRAW THOUSANDS

Visitors From Radius Of 40 Miles Here Wednesday

MERCHANTS ARE OPTIMISTIC

Finishing Touches Put On Plans For Big Event

At least 10,000 out of town visitors will be attracted to Lima on Dollar Day, it is estimated by Roy Gregg of the R. T. Gregg company. Wednesday will be the twelfth semi-annual Dollar Day to be held by local merchants.

Visitors will be drawn from a radius of 40 miles, those in charge of arrangements say. Dollar Day has always been the most successful means of bringing retail buyers to Lima from the outlying districts, and straight.

this year is expected to be no exception, Gregg believes.

Plans are being rushed on the final details of the day. Special window displays will be arranged today and tonight and additional salespeople added to take care of the immense volume of business that will be seen Wednesday.

Various transportation companies whose lines over the Lima territory have arranged to have ample facilities for all who make the semi-annual pilgrimage for Lima's co-operative bargain day, as it is termed by the Board of Commerce.

Dollar Day this year is in charge of the advisory committee of the Retail Branch of the Board of Commerce, of which Vergil Kuseley of the C. E. Blum company is chairman. Other members of the Dollar Day committee are: Arthur Myers, Michael's Clothing store; J. L. Rose, Rose Jewelry store; William H. Roush, Hoover and Roush; Frank A. Angerman, Ray's Apparel Shop; Paul Crawford, Crawford's Bootery; and Roy Gregg, R. T. Gregg company.

CAR FARES CUT

CLEVELAND. — The Cleveland Railway Company announced a reduction in street car fares to 11 tickets for 50 cents, effective March 1. The present rate is five cents Lima from the outlying districts, and straight.

YOUTHS TAKEN ON FORGERY CHARGE

McGuffey Boy, Arrested By Lima Police, Arraigned

Ernest Connelly, 17, of McGuffey, will be given a hearing before Probate Judge R. D. Turner at Kenton Tuesday afternoon, on a charge of passing forged checks. He was arrested near Harrod last week by Lima police, charged with passing a check for $35 on Lee Bailey, near chaut of that town. He confessed, police say, to cashing several forged checks in Kenton this month and was identified in jail by Gus Fregestein, Kenton clothier, who cashed a check for $15. Connelly used the names of prominent union men of the Soloto marsh, police assert.

Walter Joseph, 21; Kurt Adams, 23; Edgar Burton, 15, all of McGuffey, were arrested late Monday by Chief of Police Sheldon of Kenton, on similar charges, as accomplices of Connelly. Police say that either Adams or Joseph wrote the checks which the former passed. Joseph and Adams were placed in jail and Burton in the juvenile detention room.

FORMER SERVER OFFERS TO ERECT CITY HALL IN CENTER OF THE SQUARE

A modern ten-story building, part of which may be assigned to the city for use as a city hall, will be erected in public square by Joseph Askins, former director of public service, if the city will deed him a parcel of land in the center of the square 80 by 200 feet. This offer was made in a letter received Monday night by Mayor Harold Cunningham from Askins, who is spending the winter at Sarasota, Florida.

Mayor Cunningham pointed out that the city's power to transfer land in the square is questionable. "If the city commission will deed me a parcel of land in the center the square 80 by 200 feet, I will agree to erect on the same a modern steel ten-story building of handsome design." The letter reads: "I will build an arch over Market street of sufficient size to admit street cars and all traffic, while the Main street cars would go on either side of building."

"In consideration of said deed I will assign to the city for all time to come a transfer station, 20 by 80 feet, on the ground floor and the entire second floor for city offices."

This is one of several proposals now on file with the mayor which will be considered when the resolution authorizing bids for the old city building is finally adopted.

ADA MAN ELECTED
Thomas Derringer, of Ada, was elected president of the Hardin Livestock association at its annual meeting. C. D. Robinson, of Ridge-way, was elected vice president and F. C. Daniels, Kenton, secretary and treasurer.

The Same Rich Quality As When I Was First Married

If all of us women would pick out a good blend of coffee and stick to it the way the men stick to a certain cigar, we'd be successful coffee makers.

All my life I've used delicious, unchanging Golden Sun—

And I wouldn't trade my reputation as a coffee expert, for a good deal.

Frankly it's the coffee, not my method of making it, that makes my table so popular.

Eline's Spark the Human Engine with Eline Chocolate Bars

Eline's Sweet Milk Chocolate Bars provide proteins and carbohydrates necessary as fuel for the human engine; also vitamins to fire this fuel.

"Vitamines are absolutely indispensable to the diet," says Dr. H. Steenbock, a famous Physiological Chemist of the University of Wisconsin.

Eline Bars are supremely nourishing. They contain rich, plump cocoa beans—pure refined sugar—nourishing whole-cream milk from cows that feed in the fertile, emerald green fields of Wisconsin, where crystal pure water abounds in spring-fed lakes and babbling brooks. Cheap, off-color materials have no place in the Eline plant.

Eline Bars contain thoroughly roasted almonds of wonderful flavor.

Eline's is marvelously smooth and creamy in texture. It is the best chocolate you can buy, yet—it costs no more than common chocolate.

Taken for Vagrancy, Itinerant Pays Fine Of $2 From $100.00

Mayor Fred Harrington and Marshal Jack Cochran, of Alger, have decided that hereafter all prisoners must be searched thoroughly before arraignment. A ragged itinerant, taken from a railroad car, at Alger, was arraigned before Harrington on a charge of vagrancy.

Looking him over, Harrington asked the stranger if he would be able to pay a $2 fine and after an affirmative reply, it was settled. The prisoner, who gave his name as A. Jones, of Youngstown, asked to be taken to the bank where he removed two $50 bills from his sock, had one of them changed and paid his fine.

PROTESTS FINES PAID TO COUNTY

Bingham Seeks Funds For City
Under Crabbe Act

A telegram protesting against house bill 219, giving fines collected for violations of the Crabbe prohibition enforcement act to the counties instead of dividing them between the state and townships as at present, was sent Tuesday to nine legislators by City Manager C. A. Bingham, president of the Ohio Municipal League.

The telegram points out that the burden of enforcement is laid upon cities and declares it unfair to hand the revenue to the counties. The bill was introduced by Representative Ashcraft, of Newark.

"In Lima," Bingham's telegram reads, "we have had 140 liquor convictions entirely by city police as compared to 420 cases handled by state, justice and federal authorities in the past ten months combined."

The message is addressed to Senators Earl P. Ferguson of the thirty-second district, Harry M. Carpenter, J. E. Atwood, Joseph R. Gardner; and to Representatives W. B. Baxter of Allen-co, Mrs. May Van Nye, Robert K. Taft James W. Shaw and John A. Rummson.

Constitution is largely responsible for 'auto-intoxication' that leads to dangerous diseases unless it is not only checked but permanently relieved. Constipation, in fact, is the basis of a majority of human ailments which could be headed off if people would only help rid themselves of this serious, health-undermining condition, which can be easily done.

Constipation must be fought to a finish—not with pills and cathartics, which are dangerous to the delicate membranes of the intestines and temporary at best—but with nature's greatest cereal health food—Bran. Kellogg's Bran, which is as delicious as it is beneficial.

Kellogg's Bran is wonderful in its work because it is ALL BRAN. And to get permanent relief, ALL BRAN is a necessity, for it is the "bulk" of Kellogg's Bran that sweeps and purifies, ridding the system of poisons and bringing conditions to normal. Eat Kellogg's Bran regularly—at least two tablespoons daily, as much with each meal in chronic cases—and we guarantee that you will get relief permanently and naturally.

Kellogg's Bran is delicious. You do not have to learn to like it. Eat it as a cereal or sprinkle on or mix with hot or cold cereals. Or, cook it with hot cereals, allowing two tablespoons for each person. Kellogg's makes wonderful muffins, griddle cakes, raisin bread, macaroons, etc. Recipes on package.

Gerstenlauer, 60, pioneer resident of Lima, 518 N. Baxter-st., who died of complications Monday at his home, after an illness of two months, will be held from the residence Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., in charge of Rev. Arthur H. Pettley, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church. The body will be taken to Upper Sandusky Thursday morning at 7:05.

Every spoonful of Kellogg's Bran helps free you from toxic poisons!

Constipation is largely responsible for 'auto-intoxication' that leads to dangerous diseases unless it is not only checked but permanently relieved. Constipation, in fact, is the basis of a majority of human ailments which could be headed off if people would only help rid themselves of this serious, health-undermining condition, which can be easily done.

Constipation must be fought to a finish—not with pills and cathartics, which are dangerous to the delicate membranes of the intestines and temporary at best—but with nature's greatest cereal health food—Bran. Kellogg's Bran, which is as delicious as it is beneficial.

Kellogg's Bran is wonderful in its work because it is ALL BRAN. And to get permanent relief, ALL BRAN

is a necessity, for it is the "bulk" of Kellogg's Bran that sweeps and purifies, ridding the system of poisons and bringing conditions to normal. Eat Kellogg's Bran regularly—at least two tablespoons daily, as much with each meal in chronic cases—and we guarantee that you will get relief permanently and naturally.

Kellogg's Bran is delicious. You do not have to learn to like it. Eat it as a cereal or sprinkle on or mix with hot or cold cereals. Or, cook it with hot cereals, allowing two tablespoons for each person. Kellogg's makes wonderful muffins, griddle cakes, raisin bread, macaroons, etc. Recipes on package.

NARROW SKIRT IS PASSING OUT

Spring Styles Edict Is Issued From Paris

COLORS ARE AGAIN POPULAR

Beautiful Sleeves Of Past Few Years To Go

Jean Patou, one of the leading fashion dictators of Paris, has written for the United Press an authoritative forecast of the spring and summer styles in ladies' wear. Mr. Patou's position as spokesman for a group of Parisian dress makers makes his predictions particularly interesting at a time when buyers are busy in the French capital.

(BY JEAN PATOU).—The prevailing notes of spring and summer styles of 1923 will be:

1.—The return of colors and combinations of colors.
2.—A pronounced tendency to widen the skirts.
3.—Widespread use of printed materials.

The reign of black is finally at an end.

Not since 1914 has a prevailing note been so characteristic of a season as this use of printed crepe de chine, muslin, and crepe georgette this spring.

SLEEVES SIMPLER.
There are no obvious new lines this season, but there is constant evolution toward widening the skirt and simplifying the blouse. The blouse to the law of rhythm from the moment the skirt becomes complicated, the bodice and sleeves become simpler.

Goodbye to the beautiful sleeves of the last few years, which have us to speak, constituted the dress by themselves.

Tailor makes are regaining deserved popularity. The colors most of us are using are a new almond green, marine, all shades of beige and sables.

SAYS PAINS LEFT HIM LIKE MAGIC

He Feels Better Than For 15 Years Since Taking Plant Juice

IS RELIEVING WIFE ALSO

"I have not felt as well for 15 years as I do now, since I have taken your Plant Juice medicine," said Mr. Al Eaton, of Spencerville, Ohio, while talking with The Plant Juice Man recently at Hunter's drug store.

MR. AL EATON

49 Public Square, Lima, where large crowds of people from Lima and throughout this section are calling daily.

"For years I had suffered awful misery in my back and limbs," Mr. Eaton continued. "I would bleed and have pains from gas and my sides would become very sore. At times, just the odor of food cooking would make me sick. I was constipated; restless at night and could not sleep and at times my condition became so bad that I could not work."

"So many people were praising your Plant Juice medicine so highly that I decided to try it. The pains in my back and limbs seemed to leave me like magic after I started taking Plant Juice. My bowels are in good condition now and I enjoy my meals and do not suffer from bloating or gas pains. I sleep fine. I really feel better than at any time in 15 years and it surely is great to get such relief from that down and out feeling."

"My wife is taking Plant Juice also and is deriving relief from the misery she had had in her sides and stomach. I am glad to recommend your medicine to the public and am telling my friends to take Plant Juice if they want to get the right results."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.—Adv.

MRS. HICKEY SO WEAK COULD HARDLY STAND

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health

Worcester, Mass.—"I had some trouble caused by a female weakness and got so run-down and weak from it that I could hardly stand or walk across the floor. The doctor gave me all kinds of pills, but nothing helped me. I happened to meet a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I thought I would try it. After taking it a week I began to improve, and now I feel fine and am doing all of my household work, including washing, sewing and house cleaning. I have recommended your medicine to my friends, and I am willing for you to use this letter as a testimonial, as I would like to help any one suffering the way I did from such a weakness."—Mrs. DELIA HICKEY, 4 S. Ludlow St., Worcester, Mass.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. This book contains valuable information.

NEW TRIAL ASKED IN MORPHIS SUIT

R. R. Trubey, Defendant, Charges
Error By Court

Motion for a new trial in the case of Sadie Morphis against R. R. Trubey, was filed in Common Pleas court Tuesday morning, by attorneys for Trubey.

The petition asks that the verdicts be set aside. Saturday, the jury awarded Trubey a verdict of $265.12 and Sadie Morphis $500.

The motion alleges that the court erred in admission of evidence offered by the plaintiff; that court erred in rejection of evidence offered by the defendant and that the court erred in charging the jury.

The point to which Trubey takes exception concerns $150 which Trubey asserts was paid to assistant counsel in employ of Sadie Morphis' husband, and which was not allowed to be considered by the jury, according to the petition.

The original case arose over the contention of Mrs. Morphis that she gave Trubey $500 to secure bond for her husband, and that he kept the money. Trubey contends that he retained the amount as fees for legal services for Morphis and his wife.

Centering and Inspecting Rogers Lenses.

Defective lenses are dangerous—may permanently impair your vision—just as much as those ground from an incorrect formula.

One-half of all the lenses made are rejected as defectives—they go into the so-called "bargain glasses."

These defects are usually invisible to the untrained eye and can only be discovered by instruments of precision.

A visit to the grinding and inspection department of the Rogers stores would convince you that every precaution is taken—every scientific device utilized to safeguard your eyes.

WILL TAKE CARE OF REFUGEES

Europe Prepares To Furnish Relief To Russians

GENEVA—(United Press)—If, as Italy and Mussolini believe to be the case, Europe is facing an eventual movement westward of the Slav peoples, the Russians, when they do begin their migration and occupation of Western European nations, will find a most substantial advance guard of their own people already permanently settled down in almost every European state.

Presumably the latter will welcome with open arms the advent of the Slav movement from east to west.

Figures just completed by the League of Nations place at between $60,000 and 1,000,000 the number of Russian refugees scattered thru Western and Southern Europe.

As the first step towards giving these people some sort of a definite status, the League of Nations has taken up with all interested countries the issuance of a standard identification card or certificate to replace the passport that would ordinarily have been issued them by Russia.

To date nineteen nations have accepted the League's proposal for a common identification certificate.

This will be accepted in all countries adhering to the proposition in place of a regular passport and visa. The certificate also established the legal status of the Russian refugees in this various states where they have settled.

The League of Nations thus become a sort of wholesale sponsor for this million of people until they have either gone back to Russia, been absorbed into the countries where they now find themselves, or, as the Italians fear, they welcome the advent of a Slav move westward.

The League has accepted the principle that under no circumstances could any of these people be forced to go back into Russia against their will. On the other hand the League has met with considerable success in getting these people distributed around into various European countries, where means of livelihood exist for them.

According to the Italian thesis of an eventual movement of the Slav peoples west, two of the first points on which they will descend will be at the head of the Aegean and the Adriatic seas which would give them control of the Mediterranean basin.

NEW STATE POLICE PLAN OFFERED

Provided in Measure Before Ohio Legislature

899 BILLS ARE INTRODUCED

Previous Records in Presentation Of Acts Smashed

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Representative Justin Harding, Republican, of Warren-co, sponsor of the state constabulary bill which met defeat during the last legislative session, has a similar bill before the present assembly. He introduced the measure, which would provide for a state-wide system of police, during last night's rush of measures.

Under its provisions three troops of police who would operate outside municipalities excepting in emergencies, would operate under direction of a superintendent who would receive an annual salary of $5,000. Details of the proposal are practically identical with those of the Harding measure of two years ago.

RECORDS SMASHED

The general assembly today was getting back to its more or less peaceful routine after a hectic session last night during which all previous records for the number of bills introduced at one sitting went down with a crash.

Starting in at 5 o'clock and faced with the necessity of obtaining consent of three-fifths of the membership to present measures after midnight, members of both houses delivered a veritable avalanche of tentative legislation.

After an hour's work the tide was stemmed temporarily while members snatched a hasty dinner, but it was renewed with a vengeance and a summing up shortly before midnight, when the house finally lumbered into the home stretch, showed that a total of 207 bills and nine joint resolutions had been presented, making a total of 216 bills for the session—exactly 200 more than introduced during the entire session two years ago.

The more conservative senate limited its night's activities to submitting 77 bills and three joint resolutions, making a total of 278 for the session—nine in excess of the last session.

FEW OF IMPORTANCE

The volume of legislation offered last night was scarcely matched by its importance. Except for a series of bills introduced by Democrats and reflecting the recommendations of Governor Donahay, a joint resolution and a bill introduced by the senate to revise the workmen's compensation law and introduction of a bill in the house providing for a minimum wage for women, the measures presented were generally regarded as of no great moment.

Other measures, however, which attracted attention were one by Representative Ramsey, Toledo, permitting local option on the Sunday operation of motion picture theatres, one by Senator Collier, Cleveland, imposing stringent regulations on the purchase, sale and carrying of pistols and revolvers and providing heavy penalties for those who attempt to perpetrate crimes while armed, and another by Representative Hill of Meigs-co, proposing the transfer of the state prison from the state to the federal government.

DEMOCRATIC PROGRAM

The Democratic legislative program consisted of eleven measures introduced by the minority members of both houses. While the bills presented to the legislators represented the recommendations contained in Governor Donahay's messages, they were said to have been introduced at the instance of the minority members themselves, the governor having outlined his policy in the messages and declared that it remained for the assembly to make what disposition of them they chose. He declared himself to be in opposition to the submission of bills drawn in the executive office.

Outstanding the program were the proposals for revision of the welfare department, which included a reversion to the former system of control of institutions by a bi-partisan board of administration; re-establishing a separate purchasing agency for the state institutions; transfer of construction work on institutional buildings from the highway to the welfare department and transfer of the work of licensing automobiles to the penitentiary.

Bills proposing permanent registration of voters and doing away with sheriff's election proclamations as economy measures; consolidation of boards of trustees of state universities and normal schools into one board of governors for all institutions, submission of all plans for school structures costing more than $1,000 to the director of education for his approval and creation of a commission to confer with other states regarding commercial fishing laws on Lake Erie, also helped to make up the program. The only taxation recommendation of the chief executive to be incorporated in a bill was that which would require the printing on the back of tax receipts the amounts of the different levies and the purpose for which they were used.

Senator Kumber submitted the workmen's compensation proposals in the senate, pointing out that they had the sanction of both houses and were declared by both sides to be satisfactory.

By means of the constitutional amendment and the bill, it is proposed that awards for injuries under the law be increased to a maximum of $18.75 weekly and that the maximum for death awards be increased to $6,000.

Elimination of the "open liability" feature of the system whereby an injured person or the heirs of one accidentally killed, might sue a corporation for money in addition to compensation award, if it were shown that there had been disregard of the safety laws, also is contained.

Under the new arrangement the industrial commission would make complete settlement and suits for additional damages would be avoided.

Introduction in the house of the minimum wage bill, which is identical with that of Senator Burke of Lorain, killed in senate committee several weeks ago, was regarded as likely to reopen the entire question.

The senate has adopted the resolution of Senator Burch providing for investigation of the subject and it was expected that the Burke bill and the Burch resolution would collide in the house in somewhat the same manner as they did in the senate.

The house bill was introduced by Representative Walther, Republican, Cleveland.

The Pike county election contest which provided entertainment for early arrivals yesterday was scheduled to continue today with Representative Robert S. Wynn, Democrat incumbent of the Pike county seat in the house, defending himself against charges of Harry Foster that he is not entitled to the position.

GOLD RUSH IS ON IN PENNSYLVANIA

Much Yellow Metal Believed in Vicinity Of Yardley

YARDLEY, Pa.—(United Press)—The periodical "gold rush" is again under way here. Fifteen men have formed a company to dig for the precious metal.

Rumors have been circulating thru Bucks-co. for 25 years that there is gold in paying quantities in the vicinity of Yardley. Now searchers believe they will soon reach the gold.

Efforts of the gold hunters have been centered on what is known as "The Decoursey Farm," two miles from Yardley, a town of 1,300.

Fifteen men have formed the "Lower Makedfield Prospecting Company," each investing $100, to lease thirty farms in the vicinity of Yardley. A dollar a year and 10 per cent of the profits from the gold mines has been promised to the farm owners.

The company will begin mining operations in the spring, attacking gravel beds with washing machinery. Gold actually exists on the Decoursey farm, but whether it exists in such quantities as to make it profitable to take out has not been determined. Analysis of the top soil is said to have shown free gold. The U. S. Geological Survey has become interested in the "gold rush" and will make an investigation, it was reported.

"The land is probably more valuable for pasturage and crop purposes than for the gold it will produce," Dr. George H. Ashely, Pennsylvania Geologist, said after an inspection.

But this did not discourage Decoursey. He was asked if he believed his farm was worth a million dollars.

"Huh, good heavens man, I have six acres alone with a million in it, so its worth five million anyway," was his reply.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Mr. Gooding's connection will be severed —

Mr. F. E. Gooding's connection with the firm will be severed upon the completion of this unloading. His other interests will require all his time. That is the why and wherefore of this tremendous price slaughter sale. Cash we must have and we have done some sacrificing to get it. We can positively assure you that this will be the most phenomenal price cutting event ever offered to the people of this community. This sale which circumstances have forced upon us will be without exception the greatest unloading ever held in these parts and will begin Wednesday, Feb. 28th, at 8:30 a. m.

Crash! Go the Prices

The crash is here—we did our best to avoid it, but the withdrawal of one of the members of this firm and the consequent re-adjustment of holdings leaves us no alternative but to convert this stock into cash. Price bars are down, cost prices, selling prices, replacement prices entirely disregarded in this desperate need for money. This sale will mean to every man, woman and home a merchandising event of supreme importance. Our stocks are clean and new and represent the standards of this country's best manufacturers.

PROCEED WITH CARE ON CITY HALL

ADVERTISEMENT for bids for Lima's old city hall has been authorized. This will continue for five weeks and with the opening of tenders the city commission will have a definite idea of the value of the W. High-st property. The commission then may sell the old structure or it may reject all bids.

That it would be a good business to dispose of the old hall appears to be the general sentiment of citizens. Practically no protest against it has come to the attention of city officials. The building is an antiquated affair practically of no worth in itself, the land on which it stands being the only consideration in the purchase of it. This real estate is among the most valuable in the downtown district and should bring a big price, recent deals considered.

Two or three propositions will be open to the commission if it decides to dispose of the old building. It is in this connection that the commission will have its most difficult task. Selection of a new site will, it is evident, cause considerable dissension among taxpayers.

It is not likely that remodeling of the safety building on E. High-st to accommodate city offices will be seriously considered by the commission. Proposals to erect a new structure in the public square or on some other site undoubtedly will receive the most attention.

Opinion is much divided on the advisability of using the square for this purpose. It is argued by opponents that such a plan would clutter up this space to a serious degree, a thing that must be guarded against in view of the rapid development of Lima. Those who do not favor the square for such a building, believe it should be erected on a site near the center of the city, not necessarily on what are now the main thoroughfares of traffic. This proposal has much backing and must be given careful consideration by the commission.

There are a number of such sites available. True, they would have to be bought whereas it might be possible to use the square without any outlay for land, but a big percentage of taxpayers believe this expenditure would be justified in view of the disadvantages they see if the square is utilized.

The commission must give all angles of this proposed deal much thought before the time for opening bids arrives. A definite plan must be mapped out and a decision made in order that officials will be able to sell or reject bids for the old hall. The public should be invited before meetings to express its desires and the wishes of the majority followed thruout the transaction.

CIVIC DERELICTION

It is doubtful if there is anything more unsightly than broken and useless public lighting standards. This is particularly noticeable on bridges over Ottawa river, where the lighting arrangement has been permitted to become of such a character as to occasion comment from citizens and strangers alike.

A survey made of the bridge lighting facilities disclosed Monday that of the 56 light globes on as many standards of the seven bridges, 15 are lightless—or rather they were Monday night. Perhaps the situation may be partially remedied by this time, for the city engineer promised to give the standards immediate attention, according to C. A. Bingham, city manager.

The city manager is authority for the statement that faulty inspection when the bridges were wired at the time of their building is responsible for the wiring situation, ascribed by Bingham as the cause of the concrete spans being improperly lighted.

Whatever may be the reason for the unsightly appearance of the bridges, it should be given attention as quickly as possible, so that visitors to the city may be afforded a better impression of Lima's civic spirit. If it is necessary to delay the work until milder weather will permit of concrete work, plans should be made so that there will be no more delay than possible.

Right lighting standards, in the boulevard district, are also broken, it is reported from city hall, perhaps in every case due to having been struck by autos or motor trucks. Orders have been placed for new standards and the gaps are expected to be filled soon.

Thus far success has not attended the effort made to have the county install lights on the bridge the commissioners constructed over the river at Central-av. By all means, the bridge should be illuminated.

Some people find it hard to go to sleep even tho they have been practicing for years and years.

And I just saw him two days ago strolling with two charming dames at Palm Beach. Vince must be an aviator, or holder of the long jump record.

Up to the Capitol, and into the House. Uncle Joe Cannon? Yes, rather feeble, and no stogie. He started life on a salary of $100 a year. And has a safety box filled with gilt-edged securities. Nosing around. This is the Judiciary room, where they attempted to impeach my good friend, Harry Daugherty. Yet more famous as the throne where M'neer Volstead presides as chairman of the committee. And he'll be gone next Monday.

The Naval committee room. They will devote millions for aviation. A fast air mail route is contemplated from New York to Frisco. Rollies of the Battleships Maine and Illinois.

Strolling back on Connecticut avenue. Into the Willard's Peacock Alley. Where does all the money come from? It would take a year's salary to buy that woman's gown. She's as homely as a maid my wife, the darlin', once took orders from. When we ate our meals in gauze bandages. Over by the window there, in the great south dining salon. Was the scene ten years ago of a merry little Ohio dinner party. And the chit split four ways was $16 each. So, a tear for General George Bob Gordon; and the irrepressible, happy Henry Steinle. What a galaxy of good fellows are already up there. Won't it be great when we join them and they give us all the gossip?

MISAPPLIED SANITARY PRECAUTIONS

The modern practice of sanitation still includes too many extravagant and useless rites. It is strange how reluctant the majority of health officers are about discarding obsolete and wasteful procedures and adopting more scientific methods for the prevention of the spread of disease. The excuse unblushingly offered by many of the political accidents who administer public health is that they fear the public may not approve a radical change, such as doing away with the old-fashioned stink-pot business, fumigation after contagious or infectious disease.

The experience of well protected communities over a period of many years has proved beyond question that terminal fumigation has no positive value in the prevention of the spread of such diseases as scarlet fever, diphtheria and smallpox, yet some communities are spending good money for this useless rite. Not only is it useless but rather dangerous in effect because ignorant persons imagine that once an apartment has been fumigated there is no longer any need for care to prevent the spread of disease, whereas the most efficient fumigation of the sickroom, or the entire apartment or dwelling does not warrant any such assurance. Disease is spread by persons or at least by animate carriers; and of course fumigation has no effect on the real agencies of infection.

Regulations or ordinances dealing with the sanitary precautions which undertakers must use in the disposal of the body of one deceased place an unwarranted burden of expense on the shoulders of the bereaved family and add not iota of safety to the public in any way whatsoever. For example, laws require a hermetically sealed casket for shipping such a body. That absurd demand rests on nothing more than superstition. The superstition is that some kind of ethereal or indefinable miasm arises from the body and spreads thru the air, a fancy which no sanitarium entertains for a moment.

When an outbreak of some communicable disease occurs in school it is still deemed an appropriate rite in some communities, to have the school room fumigated. Of course every one knows that the disease is carried to school by one pupil and spread to others thru personal contact or in the spray from nose and mouth. How fumigation of the schoolroom can alter that fact is a mystery, with which only an affable politician can grapple. It must be a dirty sort of school that calls for fumigation. Maybe it is a case of had conscience on the part of the health officer, an eagerness to create a huge smoke screen and raise a terrible stench to keep folks from wondering where the health police were when the crime occurred. This practice of punishing the schoolroom after the catastrophe may be pleasing to the less enlightened classes but in effect it is just as sensible as singeing the cat's whiskers. Perhaps the performance of these impressive rites gives the health officer a kind of dignity and importance (in his own estimation) makes him seem to earn his salary and all that sort of thing.

The women don't faint any more,
 They seldom go flop on the floor,
 They're tougher, more agile

 Sighing and weeping in anguish

 Girls of today, whom the dowagers scold about,
 Smile at their troubles—and stay

The women don't faint any more,
 It wouldn't get by, as of yore,
 The fainting and sighing
 Would prove very trying

 For fainting went out when the

 And nowadays women, when luck seems to harry 'em,
 Bear all their sorrows and woes
 like a man.

THE KISS OF JUDAS

BY E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

SIR NORMAN GREYER, formerly of Scotland Yard, is devoting his life to tracking down an arch criminal of many aliases and disguises, but known to him as MICHAEL SAYERS. Among Sayers' secret abodes was a cottage near an English golf course where he was served by a housemaid, JANET STANFIELD, and lived as "MR. STANFIELD." One day while Sir Norman, a guest at the golf club, was playing the course with Stanfield, Janet shot and killed a police officer who had tracked Sayers to the spot. The maid professed to her master and to Sir Norman complete ignorance, but later confessed to "Stanfield" and became his accomplice, as is told in the present story by Sir Norman.

On the evening of my return from the Riviera after a three-months' holiday, I was accosted in the lounge of Marbridge Hotel by a middle-aged man of inconspicuous appearance who had been seated in a corner alone. It was some few seconds before I could recall him to my memory, but curiously enough a crowd of unpleasant associations gathered themselves together in my mind even before I had recognized him.

I knew all about him then. "Mr. Stanfield, isn't it?" I said. "No, I haven't forgotten," he said. "I was a few minutes early for my party, and I accepted the offer of a cocktail from my golfing acquaintance."

"That was an extraordinary interruption to our first game," he remarked. "I never fancied my little house much after that," he gave it up, in fact, within the year."

"I heard you had left," I told him.

"You had no luck in your investigations, Sir Norman?" he inquired. "I shook my head. The subject was still a sore one with me."

"I had no luck at all," I confessed. "I came to certain conclusions which carried me a little way along the road, but all the clouds ended abruptly. Yet I don't despair. I always have the funny that some day or other I shall solve that mystery."

The waiter brought the cocktails and we raised our glasses.

"I drink, then, to that day, Sir Norman," my companion said.

"I am with you," I declared heartily.

We talked idly of various matters for a few moments, principally of golf, which I had been playing regularly in the south of France. There were several dinner-parties being given in the restaurant that evening and some very beautiful women were in evidence. One in particular attracted my attention. She was tall, slender, slim, beautifully made. Her complexion was perfect, altho a little colorless. Her strange colored eyes had a nameless attraction. Her hair, beautifully coiffed, was just the shade of brown which appealed to me. She bowed to my companion as she passed, and joined a little group at the farther end of the hall. The last thing I noticed about her was her wonderful string of pearls.

"That is a very beautiful woman," I remarked. "Do you know who she is?"

"A South American widow—De Mendoza, her name is."

"You know her?"

"My humble apartment is on the same floor as her suite," my companion replied. "She is gracious enough sometimes to remember the fact that we meet occasionally in the lift."

My friends arrived, and I made my adieu to my erstwhile golfing acquaintance. Somehow or other, my meeting with him had left an unpleasant impression behind it. It had forced my thoughts back to the humiliating recollection of the fact that the murderer of Richard Labrooke still remained undiscovered, and that the man who had called himself Pugsley had walked away from detection under our very eyes.

"EXCUSE ME, BUT YOU ARE SIR NORMAN GREYER?" HE ASKED.

And had never been heard of since.

Among my fellow-guests was an official of the Home Office, and our conversation naturally drifted into the subject of social order.

"Your connection with Scotland Yard having long since ceased, Sir Norman," he remarked to me, "you will not be over-sensitive as to facts."

The epidemic of crime which was raging about two years ago seems to have broken out again with exactly the same results. There are four undetected murders and five great robberies up to the date of your late department. Your people believe that the same person is at the head of it who planned all those robberies eighteen months ago and escaped arrest by shooting the inspector."

I affected to take only a casual interest in the information; but as a matter of fact, I was considerably moved. If the man who had just cooed his identity under the name of Pugsley, but whom I strongly suspected to be the notorious Michael Sayers, had really come out into the open once more, life would certainly possess a new interest for me during the next few months.

We were a party of six that evening—a celebrated criminal lawyer and his wife, my friend from the Home Office, with his wife and sister-in-law, and myself. The criminal lawyer, who was our host, heard scraps of our conversation and leaned forward.

"You did well to leave Scotland Yard when your reputation stood high, Sir Norman," he said. "A now and a crime has dawned, and the struggle is no longer equal. It isn't the riffraff of the world today who take to murder and burglary. The skilled and conscienceless scientist has taken their place. The criminal of today, in nine cases out of ten, is of higher mental caliber than the detective who is opposed to him."

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS—THOUSANDS OF THEM—

By BLOSSER

"The struggle should be the more interesting," I remarked vaguely.

It was a fancy of mine that my continued interest in my profession should remain as little known as possible, and I talked for some time on indifferent subjects to the lady who was seated by my side. We admitted Mrs. De Mendoza and her gorgeous rope of pearls. My host intervened.

"It is women like that," he commented, "who choose to deck their bodies with jewels of fabulous value, who encourage crime."

"Roughing speaking, I dare say that necklace is worth eighty thousand pounds. It is really true that Pugsley is one more at work, what an opportunity!"

"A woman must be very brave," my hostess declared, "to run such risks."

"The jewels are probably in the hotel safe most of the time," I suggested. "I don't suppose she goes out in them."

Our host smiled.

"I can imagine Pugsley finding a few minutes in the hotel quite sufficient," he observed. "He or his successors, whoever they may be, would think little enough of human life by the side of, say, 50,000 pounds. By killing at sight they certainly increase their chances of escape."

"That closed our conversation upon the subject. We sat about in the lounge and drank coffee and liqueurs, danced for a time and smoked a few cigarettes. The party broke up as the lights in the lounge were being lowered. I was the only one of our little gathering remaining in the hotel, and I was talking for a few moments to the head porter, who was an old acquaintance of mine, when a man made a somewhat hurried entrance through the swing-doors and seemed on the point of proceeding to the office. As he saw me, however, he hesitated, and turning aside, addressed me.

"Excuse me, but you are Sir Norman Greyer?" he asked.

I admitted the fact.

"Can I ask you to give me five minutes of your time on a matter of urgent business?"

I looked at him with some surprise. His voice and address were good, and in appearance he differed in no respect from the crowd of diners who frequented the place. He drew a card from his pocket and handed it to me.

I stepped underneath one of the electric standards and looked at the card—"Mr. Stanley Deichester."

Underneath was the name of a famous insurance company. I motioned him to follow me into the deserted lounge, and invited him to take a chair.

"Many years ago, Sir Norman," he reminded me, "when you were officially engaged at Scotland Yard, you saved our firm a great loss in the matter of the Hatton Gardens emerald theft."

"I remember it quite well," I admitted.

"We understand," my visitor continued, "that you have now resigned from the force, but we hoped that you might be inclined to undertake a commission for us. It came to the ears of our chief quite unexpectedly that you were staying here, and he sent me after you at once."

"I can at least hear what the business is," I replied.

"There is staying in this hotel," the insurance agent proceeded, "a Mrs. De Mendoza, the reputed widow of a fruit merchant in Buenos Aires. She is the possessor of a very wonderful pearl necklace, which she has insured with our firm for a hundred thousand pounds. Our acceptance of the policy was a grave error which we recognized almost immediately afterward. We know nothing of the lady, and under those circumstances it is against our business policy to accept the risk. We have done our best to protect ourselves, however. Since the policy was issued, we have kept in constant touch with her, and have been in daily communication with the hotel detective. By tonight's post, however, we had a message from the latter to say that he was at home ill, and that during his absence his duties would be taken over by the night watchman. The policy has only one more week to run, and will not under any conditions be renewed. We want to know if, for any fee which you care to name, you will do your best to guard the necklace for us during that week?"

HUNTERS THREE STORES

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home. But it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes the place of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less. Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time. It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, pneumonia, croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, which has been found over for its healing effect on sore throats. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. CITY HALL SALE IS AUTHORIZED

Resolution Asking Bids Placed On First Reading

ASSESSING ACTS PASSED

Hume Appointment Is Confirmed By Resolution

Resolution authorizing C. A. Bingham, city manager to receive bids for the sale of the city building was passed Monday night for two more readings before final action is taken, at the suggestion of City Solicitor Paul Landis. Motion to adopt the resolution under suspension of the rules was withdrawn and the solicitor's suggestion acted upon.

No debate on the measure was heard but members of the commission indicated that public sentiment, so far as they were in touch with it, favors the sale under the proposed terms, which reserve to the commission the right to reject any or all bids.

Petitions for sewers in Leland-av. from Kenilworth-av. to Cole-st., and on Kenilworth-av. from the first alley south of Rice-av. to a point 150 feet north of Leland-av. were granted. Property owners in the territory indicated will bear the entire cost of the construction and contribute their share of cost of $50 main outlet. The city solicitor was instructed to prepare the necessary legislation.

PAVING ASSESSED
An ordinance levying assessments for the paving of Collett-st. from Richle-av. to Delphos-av. was passed. Recommendation of the city manager that Baxter-st., 18 feet wide at present, be paved 24 feet wide and the sidewalks relaid by the city if the property owners will donate the land, was adopted.

T. J. Finn, 808 Dingleline-av., questioned the commission on the paving of Dingleline from Harrison to Calumet-st., declaring that citizens object to the use of Tarris. He called the commission's attention to a petition of residents on Dingleline requesting asphalt paving. Finn also requested that certain inspectors not be assigned to the Dingleline job.

A resolution appointing Frank Hume, major in the national guard, city clerk and purchasing agent to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Harry N. Osgood, was adopted. Part of the sewer assessment against inlet No. 55, owned by P. C. Ireton, was omitted by resolution, it having been found that this property is already provided with sewer service.

If You Get "Fired"

what would you do? Be obliged to take the first job that was offered you, in order to keep from starving to death, or would you have a comfortable little savings account to fall back on until such time as you could hunt up a regular job?

Nobody plans on getting "fired," of course, but the man who works for somebody else never can tell. Will you be ready?

Society News

SOOCIETY descended en masse upon the Elks Home Monday night, when the Lima Rotary club entertained with their annual "Ladies Night."

An elaborate four course dinner was served in the spacious ball room, attractively decorated, with the Rotary emblem predominating. During the dinner, Edward Gordon, president of the Lima Rotary club, acted as toastmaster, introducing Walter S. Jackson, District Governor of Kiwanis and George Mitchell, Coshocton District Governor of Rotary, both honor guests. Because of inability of Rev. Franklin A. Stiles, Middletown, formerly of this city, to be present, Rev. Chas. A. Rowand spoke to the guests on "The Philosophy of Rotary." A short address by Dist. Gov. Mitchell followed.

Unusual place cards for the women took the form of bank books, each book showing the sum of one dollar had been deposited to their credit at the City Loan and Savings Bank. Useful and novel favors were given the guests, including the checks passed out by the Lima Trust Co. Mrs. C. C. Williams held the check with the lucky number, for which she was presented with $25 in gold. Mrs. Williams immediately turned the sum over to the City Hospital Fund.

Ruvinsky's Orchestra played both during the dance and for the dancing that followed. A musical offering of the evening, was the appearance of a group of singers from the Faurot Opera House.

Guests were: Mesdames Howard Miller, George Eckert, Walter Jackson, B. O. Lower, Fred Dorrles, Ralph Austin, Peter Haulken, Geo. Mitchell, Frank Kahle, T. R. SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: I AM 17 years old. I would have to go another year to finish high school so I want to quit and go to work. I don't see that there is any use for me to go on, as I keep getting company with a fine young man and we are going to be married just as soon as he gets a promotion in his position. Of course we will not be married for two or three years, as we think we are too young. Don't you think the parents should see that it is no use for me to continue going to school?

No, I think your parents' stand on this question is right and that you should follow their wishes and finish high school. Be glad that you have this opportunity. It is unfortunate that you have permitted yourself to be drawn so completely into a love affair while you are still in school.

Dear Miss Smart: What do you think of a young man who, after being given up by a respectable girl keeps company with another and talks to her about it? I am not afraid of anything he may say, but just figure he is quite a cad. How is my husband?

I quite agree with you. How much better the world would be if we could all agree that if we cannot say anything good about people not to say anything! Your writing is exceptionally good.

Dear Miss Smart: I went to a girl for some time, but we finally quit, for no reason whatsoever. Now I would like to go with her again, but she is keeping company with another fellow. I believe, tho, that she would like to go with me again. Would it be the proper thing for me to ask her for a date, or should I wait until she drops the other man?

Waiting probably would not be advisable in this case. Since you think the girl would be glad to renew your friendship, the sensible thing to do would be to invite her to go out with you.

DEVOUT CHRISTIAN: I have two names sent to me—names of two women who desire to meet you. Will you please send me your name and address and I will forward the names to you.

LONELY CLUB MEMBERS: I received a letter today from the founder of the lonely club. She does not have a home of her own; just two rooms with a family where it would be impossible for her to have the first meeting. She has requested me to ask you, thru my column, that if one of you will allow the men and women to meet at your home, for a strictly business meeting, no social hour, to please send your name to me and I will send it to her. I feel sure there is someone who will allow these people to gather at their home.

Grippe

Physicians advise keeping the bowels open as a safeguard against Grippe or Influenza. When you are constipated, not enough of Nature's lubricating liquid is produced in the bowel to keep the food waste soft and moving. Doctors prescribe Nujol because it acts like this natural lubricant and thus secures regular bowel movements by Nature's own method—lubrication. Nujol is a lubricant—not a medicine or laxative—so cannot gripe. Try it today.

DRINK WATER IF BACK OR KIDNEYS HURT

Begin Taking Salts if You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Weakness

Too much rich food forms acids which excite and overwork the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Flush the kidneys occasionally to relieve them like you relieve the bowels, removing acid, waste and poison, else you may feel a dull misery in the back or sick headache, dizziness, the stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get irritated, obliging one to get up two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste, begin drinking water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine and bladder disorders disappear.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help prevent serious kidney and bladder disorders. By all means drink lots of good water every day. Have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

NO INTERFERENCE IN LABOR PLANS

Trades Council Asks Repeal Of Licensing Measure

O'GRAIN'S PERMIT REISSUED

Chief Lanker Denies Using Abusive
Language

The city commission will not interfere with the organization drive in Lima by the Central Trades and Labor council, a delegation from that body was assured by Mayor Harold Cunningham Friday night. Permit of John R. O'Grain, organizer for the Cigar Makers' International union, which was voided Saturday by the police department, was reissued by Manager C. A. Bingham. About 20 members of the labor body, headed by President Charles Weissner and Secretary V. H. Effinger, met the commission in the manager's office. Chief of Police T. A. Lanker was accused of using "abusive language" and exceeding his authority when he arrested O'Grain and voided his permit. Lanker denied both the alleged language and the revocation of the permit.

Effinger stated that the local labor body, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, is inaugurating a drive to obtain 25,000 local members and that several organizations will be invited from outside Lima. Mayor Harold Cunningham and Chief Lanker assured him that if such agents had the sanction of the local trades body they would be unmolested as long as they conformed to the law.

REPEAL SOUGHT
The labor delegation also made an oral request that the city commission repeal the ordinance which puts a "prohibitive license fee on activities of outside employment agents in Lima."

"Our only product is labor," Effinger said, "and we have as much right as a bond broker to know what our product will bring in the outside market." Objection was made that while certain classes of labor agents, notably those for the steam railroads, were exempted, free lance agents were included.

Mayor Cunningham interpreted the ordinance as exempting any labor agent who affiliated himself with a local organization and pointed out that as the ordinance stands no general agent may operate unless he has the sanction of the local body thus giving it the say-so as to what agents shall operate in Lima. He invited the labor men to submit written amendments to the commission for action.

CRUCIAL TEST IN PAVING WAR

DELPHOS FORCES CLASH TONIGHT

Final Skirmish Expected To Occur In Contention

CONTROL BOARD IS OPPOSED

City Server Sees Further Loss In Delay

Fiscal preparations have been made for what is believed will be the crucial skirmish Tuesday night in the battle between Delphos property owners and council in the S. Main-S. Pierce and Cleveland paving war.

Council two weeks ago demanded that property owners make the final deal that will place the ban on a start this year. Property owners are in position to play their rump, but in couching, its ultimatum in formal terms, council provided them with a problem.

The property owners seek a method to prevent matters being tied up in such a manner that a start on the improvement in 1924 will be impossible. It is freely admitted by some of the taxpayers that they do not desire the transfer of funds obtained from the bonds issued to pay the city's share of the cost to the sinking fund.

A letter was received by Treasurer S. H. Wahnoff, before council took its last action, to the effect that the local depository will not hold the money after March 17 as more than a three per cent interest rate. The city had been receiving six per cent since March 17, 1922.

Council's action was so framed as to stipulate that in event property owners do not present a petition containing names of taxpayers representing most of the front footage along the three streets, the body will proceed with the project.

PETITION COMPLETED
The property owners have protested themselves on this score. It was stated Tuesday, and according to gossip about city hall, the property owners completed work on the petition Monday night.

Officials deny they have learned of an escape the cut in interest. A new proposition from the depository is declared improbable.

Heretofore property owners openly stated they do not want the improvement while the present board of control is in office.

This is still the basis of their contention. Ed Spellman, service director and member of the control board, said Tuesday, "They are not aiming at council, but at us," Spellman declared.

He seeks large additional sums the city stands to lose in addition to the $5,000 already spent for advertising, engineering fees, court costs and miscellaneous expenses. A contract signed by Carl Simons, Van Wort engineer, will expire this year, Spellman says. The city already has paid Simons $1,800 without a spadeful of dirt being turned.

SPRINGFIELD MAN TO PREACH IN DELPHOS

A candidate for the Presbyterian church pulpit in Delphos will be in charge of services Sunday, according to Rev. M. E. Todd, Bluffton, chairman of the Lima Presbyterian supply committee. The candidate will come from either Gallon or Springfield, but his name has not been given the Delphos committee on supply.

Rev. Todd was in charge of services at the church Sunday. Various ministers have supplied the pulpit since resignation of Rev. George H. Gibson, who left February 1 for Detroit.

26 TO BE GRADUATED FROM DELPHOS SCHOOL

Graduation fever is in the air. Fast approaching heralds the momentous occasion when high school girls and boys receive diplomas for successful completion of school work.

Samples of graduation materials are arriving in the office of Principal Sam Warner, Delphos high school. He displayed Tuesday a sheet of sample invitations for approval of donors.

The high school will graduate 26 at the end of the term if all survive the home stretch. The class was increased Monday by addition of Miss Margaret Williams, former Lakewood, Cleveland, high school student.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wynol's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully thick and glossy and you look years younger. DELPHOS SOCIETY

Court Delphos, No. 707, Catholic Daughters of America, will lead its assistance March 19 at Cleveland in the organization of a state council of the order.

Appointment of a delegate will be considered at the regular meeting Tuesday evening. The Grand Report, Mrs. D. L. Janman, is expected to attend in her capacity as head of the order, but if she is unable to do so another will be chosen.

Forming of state councils is the result of decentralization plans of the C. D. of A. It is done to eliminate much of the work concerning rules, regulations and other details which now are taken up by only the national council. Such matters will hereafter be considered by the state organizations.

Organization of a C. D. of A. Dramatic club will be perfected Tuesday evening under the direction of Miss Mary Burger. An Easter play is proposed.

Sewing and contests are on the program for the Stitch-a-wee club for Thursday afternoon, when it will meet with Mrs. Ralph Welch, N. Main-st.

Miss Ruby May, N. Cass-st, will extend hospitality at her home to the J. F. P. club Tuesday evening. The program includes sewing, music and dancing.

Willing Workers class of the Presbyterian Sunday school will meet at the M. R. Ford home, W. Third-st, Tuesday evening. Miss Breta and Annabel Ford will be hostesses.

1923 club will be entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Gilpin, E. Fifth-st. Sewing and contests will be the features of the afternoon.

Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church, will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Jennie Miller, S. Pierce-st.

Members of the Tourist club met at the Theodore Helmkamp home, W. Second-st, Monday evening. Miss Ethel Boller was hostess.

The program at this meeting was as follows: "Opinions of Aristotle Franco," Paul Gault, by Miss Elmer Hart; "La Vie en Fleur," by Mrs. George Walther; Book Review, "The Crime of Sylvester Bonnard," by Mrs. Mildred Jettingshoff.

The next meeting will be March 12, Mrs. Mildred Jettingshoff will be hostess.

United Brethren Ladies Aid Society will hold an all-day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Valentine, S. Franklin-st.

Golfing will be the feature of the morning. A short business meeting will be held in the forepart of the afternoon, and later the ladies will enjoy a social hour.

Invitations have been sent out to the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters to attend the indoor picnic which will be held in the J. C. of P. rooms Thursday evening.

An interesting program is being arranged for the picnic supper. Games and amusements will be furnished for the children.

DRILLS, BASKETBALL IN DELPHOS SCOUT PROGRAM

Drills and basketball games were on the program of a meeting held Monday night by Delphos boys scouts in the Jefferson school building.

The crowd defeated a team of candidates 12 to 3 and the Cardinal patrol won over the Bob Whites, 4 to 0. Scout Williams conducted the drills. The scoutmaster benediction was given.

Can't Stop Joint-Ease

"You can't stop people from buying Joint-Ease for sore throat and cold in chest," writes one of our druggist friends. "They say it's the best ever."

We know that, of course, but please remember that Joint-Ease is for stiff, swollen, painful joints, whether rheumatic or not, and its tremendous sale for that purpose proves that it is the one joint remedy that gets the most satisfying results.

A tube costs 60 cents at Green's Public Drug Store, Hunter's 3 Stores and druggists everywhere. Just rub it on and in a few seconds it disappears completely under the skin, and relief follows instantly. adv

LENTZ' RELATIVES ARE LOCATED

Funeral Of Man Found Dead In Barn Not Arranged

Arrangements for the funeral of William Lentz, 57, inmate of the Allen-co infirmary, who was found dead Monday in a barn on the F. M. Thayer farm ten miles east of Lima, have not been completed.

Relatives in Kenton received their first information of Lentz' death from the account published in the Lima News Monday. His mother, Mrs. Mary Lentz, 77, resides in Kenton, as does a sister, Mrs. Elmer Holwerdt. A brother, Adam, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Smith, reside in Cleveland.

He was received at the county home last Friday and after leaving the institution late Sunday night without hat or coat, was found dead Monday in the Thayer barn.

Dr. Frank Smith, coroner, pronounced death due to exposure and alcoholism.

WITNESS IN CASE OF STATE HOSPITAL INMATE HELD IN COAST MURDER

Mrs. Cosy F. Peden, prominent witness in the trial of Emma Diehlman, who was convicted of the murder of W. S. Connaughton on July 14, 1919, and sentenced to the Lima state hospital for criminal insane, is being held by Los Angeles police in connection with the death of Frank Johnson of Marshalltown, Iowa, who was stabbed to death in Los Angeles Monday.

Mrs. Peden conducted the rooming house, in Dayton in which the Connaughton murder occurred. Los Angeles police, reports say, declare that Mrs. Peden enlisted Johnson's aid in a difficulty over a business matter which resulted in an argument between Johnson and A. J. Whitley of Los Angeles who is being held with Mrs. Peden.

Whitley told the police that Johnson had brought another man and that "a pistol was drawn."

Mrs. Peden disappeared after testifying in the Diehlman case.

OLD RESIDENT DIES

John W. Miller, 82, probably the oldest resident of Wapakoneta, died in his home there, from cancer. Four children survive. Mrs. J. C. Neice, of Lima, is a daughter.

How to Avoid Flu

Avoid the influenza-pneumonia by obeying these rules:

Keep out of the sickroom as much as possible.

Keep your children dry and warm.

Avoid those who cough or sneeze.

Keep the nose well greased with an ointment containing a germicide.

If you cough or sneeze, use your handkerchief.

Prevent colds, as a cold today may lead to influenza tomorrow. Do not overeat or overdrink.

Here is a formula for one of the most successful ointments used during the epidemic of last year. It is a combination of the old-time remedies of turpentine (which for years has been the best home germicide), camphor and menthol. It is called Turpo and is the only turpentine ointment. Turpo is also a good preventive for colds.

Your druggist has a jar for you. If influenza develops, go to bed and call a doctor.

This is a voting stock. Is preferred as to dividends. Is cumulative as to dividends—now paying $1.00 per share quarterly, which is more than 7% on the price of $55.00 per share. The stock is traded in on both the New York and Chicago Stock Exchanges. Is good collateral for a bank loan.

PIGGLY WIGGLY Stores now operating in 41 States and Canada—1241 stores now the total—located in 335 towns and cities.

$55,000,000.00 were the sales of PIGGLY WIGGLY Stores for 1922—expect to exceed $100,000,000.00 for the present year.

First PIGGLY WIGGLY Store established at Memphis, Tenn., six years ago, 43 now operating at that city—only National Chain of Grocery Stores in United States operating both East and West of Mississippi River—from Pacific Coast to the Atlantic—from the Great Lakes to Key West, Fla.

PIGGLY WIGGLY STORES, Inc., owns and operates 659 stores located in the towns and cities marked (*).

$31,000,000.00 were the sales of this Company for 1922—expected to exceed $60,000,000.00 for present year.

This Company also operates Variety Stores in Memphis, Tenn., Chicago, Ill., Norfolk, Va., Nashville, Tenn., Chattanooga, Tenn., and Terre Haute, Ind.—these stores are extremely profitable and many more will be established during the present year.

CLARENCE SAUNDERS is the originator and founder of PIGGLY WIGGLY and is President of PIGGLY WIGGLY STORES, Inc.

It is desired by Mr. Saunders that PIGGLY WIGGLY customers and friends be the real owners of PIGGLY WIGGLY Stores, and for that purpose has acquired in the open market a block of Class "A" Common Stock, which is now offered to them at a price materially under market quotations at this time.

Mr. Saunders has determined to keep this stock out of the hands of speculators and have it held by the real investors, who will enjoy the profits of the PIGGLY WIGGLY STORES.

It is desired that wide distribution be had on this block of stock, and that this may be accomplished it is offered at this low price. Arrangements have been perfected so that this stock may be paid for on a partial payment plan, upon the basis of $25.00 cash per share, and three notes at the rate of $10.00 per share due June 1st, September 1st and December 1st.

This is to be a quick proposition, subject to withdrawal without prior notice, as soon as this particular stock is sold.

PIGGLY WIGGLY is the greatest merchandising plan ever used in the distribution of Food Products. The experimental stage has been passed—it is now a sound investment and the prospective earnings of PIGGLY WIGGLY STORES, Inc., certainly make it appear that big dividends will be paid in the future on this stock.

No organization has ever in the history of the country had such a remarkable growth as PIGGLY WIGGLY—what has taken twenty or thirty years for other businesses to achieve has been done by CLARENCE SAUNDERS and PIGGLY WIGGLY in six years. And in six years this organization will exceed in magnitude and profit any other merchandising company in America.

How many times have we heard somebody say: "If I had been one of those lucky fellows who had some of the original stock of 'So and So,' how different would my position be now in the world."

This is not new stock, but, on the contrary, is the original stock of this Company and not the kind that is usually handed out to the public after somebody else has got the big profit.

To get on the ground floor of any big proposition is the opportunity that comes to few, and then only once in a lifetime—this is that opportunity for you!

WILLIE NORTH

(BY WILLIE NORTH)

How do you do it?

During my recent tour of the west many billiard enthusiasts put that question to me.

They had referred to my good fortune in being able to keep looking young and playing good billiards.

"Just lucky," I have replied to most of the queries. However, more than more luck has played a part in my good fortune as a billiard player. In this article I will try to briefly explain why good fortune has smiled on me so sweetly.

Clean living is the greatest asset of an athlete. I have never dissipated. I cannot afford to dissipate. I trust I will be excused from the stigma of smoking when I say the game of billiards demands superlater skill.

TOUCH IMPORTANT ASSET

The touch of the fingers on the cue and the imparting of that touch to the balls demand that the mind and body be absolutely free from ill.

A spine of delicate touch is the most important thing in the game—

it is nine-tenths of good playing. It comes from experience of course.

Eye-sight is important—but not so important as the other faculty.

The hand executes in billiards. It isn't hard, then, to understand what an important part of good health plays in the game when there are hundreds of shots that call for the shaving of a ball to the thousandth of an inch.

The stomach is one organ that is easily put out of kilter and a disgruntled stomach quickly affects the entire system. A headache is a simple ailment—but it is a simple ailment to avoid having. The proper cure of the system will eliminate it.

Yankee Holdovers, Are Only

Veterans Signed For 1923

NEW YORK—Only two Yankee veterans are signed for the coming season. They are Carl Mays and Babe Ruth, the big disappointments of 1922. Both are holdovers and it is lucky for them they are.

Mays led the American League pitchers in 1922, and twirled great ball in the big series with the Giants.

Ruth was the sensation of 1921 in sixt circles, with 59 home runs, setting a record that batters will be shooting at a long time.

Naturally, when it came to signing contracts for 1923, both were in a position to dictate terms to the club. Each signed a two-year contract extending thru 1923.

It is said that Ruth's contract calls for $52,000 a year, which is paid to the slugger in weekly installments of $1,000 thruout the year. Mays is said to have gotten $15,000 a year for two years.

Mays and Ruth were the "busts" of 1922. Mays failed to pitch winning ball at any stage of the race.

Ruth was away below form and lost about 10 weeks of play because of suspensions.

"Java Head" Is Coming Attraction

As the critics describe it, "Java Head," George Melford's latest Paramount picture is spectacular in its simplicity. This production, adapted by Waldemar Young from the novel by Joseph Hergesheimer, has been secured by the Quilna theatre. It is a love story with the eternal triangle again in evidence, but this time it is employed so peculiarly as to make the picture different from any seen here recently. This is George Melford's best production in which Beatrice Joy, Jacqueline Logan, Raymond Hatton, George Fawcett and many other play featured roles.

Salem, Mass., is the locale of the story, although several of the scenes are laid in China. The story, in brief, tells of the love of a young sea captain Gerret Ammidon, for a young Chinese maiden, Taou Yuen. Gerret returns from Shanghai with his Chinese wife to find Nettie Volla ready to marry him. Nettie suffers an injury, and Gerret leaves Taou Yuen to go to her. A rival of Gerret's and an opium smoker, tells Taou that her husband and Nettie are in love. The young wife orders him from the house and goes to Nettie's home to leave just after her husband has left. Edward, the rival, is now a raving maniac and follows her. Here a dramatic finale, filled with thrills is reached.

The production is a photoplay of exceptional heart interest and appeal. It is dramatic, impressive and thrilling to the nth degree, and will be shown at the Quilna theatre beginning March 18.

MLLE. LENGLEN WITHDRAWS

MONTE CARLO.—Tennis enthusiasts who have been expecting a singles match between Mrs. Molla Blythe and Suzanne Lenglen are disappointed, at least as far as the Monte Carlo tournament is concerned, for the French star has withdrawn from the singles play.

THIRD BASEMEN ARE EXPENSIVE

NEW YORK.—New third basemen, worth nearly a quarter of a million dollars, will be trotted out next year in the major leagues. Four brand new rookie stars will make their debut on the big time and four other clubs may give utility men a chance to replace faltering veterans.

Desperately in need of a third baseman, the Chicago White Sox went into the market and bought the most highly touted—Willie Kamm—from the San Francisco Pacific Coast League club for $100,000.

Cannell Mack came next and he nearly knocked out the entire circuit when he paid $75,000 for Sammy Hale, another coast product.

Cleveland kicked in $35,000 for Lutzke and the Cubs let go of $39,000 for Graham.

The Indians may find no room for Lutzke, however, as Riggs Stephenson, one of the utility infielders, was said by the players to have been the most improved ball player of the barnstormers who toured the Orient.

Washington and the St. Louis Cardinals would have new third basemen and the Browns will have to find one if they are to get any place next year.

Finding them is a tough proposition, however. If four good ones come up in a year, it may be four years before one more good one is found.

WILLIAM HOPPE

(BY WILLIE HOPPE)
How do you do it?
During my recent tour of the west many billiard enthusiasts put that question to me.

They had reference to my good fortune in being able to keep looking young and playing good billiards.

"Just lucky," I have replied to most of the queries. However, more than mere luck has played a part in my good fortune as a billiard player.

In this article I will try to briefly explain why good fortune has smiled upon me so sweetly.

Clean living is the greatest asset of an athlete. I have never dissipated.

I cannot afford to dissipate. I trust I will be excused from the stigma of exotherm when I say the game of billiards demands superlative skill.

TOUCH IMPORTANT ASSET
The touch of the fingers on the cue and the imparting of that touch to the balls demands that the mind and body be absolutely free from life.

A game of delicate touch is the most important thing in the game—it is nine-tenths of good playing. It comes from experience of course. Eyesight is important—but not so important as the other faculty.

The hand executes in billiards. It isn't hard, then, to understand what an important part good health plays in the game when there are hundreds of shots that call for the shaving of a ball to the thousandth of an inch.

The stomach is one organ that is easily put out of kilter and a disgruntled stomach quickly affects the entire system. A headache is a simple ailment—but it is a simpler ailment to avoid having. The proper care of the system will eliminate the possibility of such an irritant. The fact that I have traveled tens of thousands of miles and played tens of thousands of games under any and all conditions, speaks well, I believe, for my system of taking care of myself.

We are told that the human body is more delicate than the finest piece of machinery. I believe that to be true. We would bestow on an automobile or a bicycle, if it keeps going most of us are content. I believe that good health goes for sportsmanship.

A healthy body means a healthy mind and a healthy mind generally strings along with a healthy desire to see the other fellow get justice, in business or sports.

REAL TEST OFF TABLE
The test of health in billiards is not so drastic as the table as off it. It takes nerve, cold nerve, a complete clamping down on the imagination to sit by and watch an opponent click off points after point with monotonous regularity.

It gets terribly on the nerves. That is why I consider billiards the hardest of all sports. It demands perfect co-ordination and a temperament in keeping.

Unlike boxing, tennis, golf, swimming, fencing, wrestling or any other two-handed game, a player must sit by while his opponent is in action.

There can be no fighting back, a fight that really soothes the nerves and makes the losing of the game a subordinated issue.

The billiardist has to sit and take it and hope for a sliver when finally he does reach for his cue.

Billiards demands perfect condition. I have constantly sought to be in such shape. What little success I have had speaks for itself.

NEW YORK.—Only two Yankee veterans are signed for the coming season. They are Carl Mays and Babe Ruth, the big disappointments of 1922. Both are holdovers and it is lucky for them they are.

Mays led the American League pitchers in 1921, and twirled great ball in the big series with the Giants. Ruth was the sensation of 1921 in swat circles, with 59 home runs, setting a record that batters will be shooting at a long time.

Naturally, when it came to signing contracts for 1922, both were in a position to dictate terms to the club. Mays signed a two-year contract extending thru 1923.

It is said that Ruth's contract calls for $52,000 a year, which is paid to the slugger in weekly installments of $1,000 thruout the year. Mays is said to have gotten $15,000 a year for two years.

Mays and Ruth were the "busts" of 1922. Mays failed to pitch winning ball at any stage of the race. Ruth was away below form and lost about 10 weeks of play because of suspensions.

Were it not for the fact that both are in such good shape, they would have been sent to the minors.

The Bluffton district basketball tournament, which is only two days away, is attracting the largest entry list of any of the district cage meets, and the games at the north end of Allen-co Friday and Saturday are expected to be fast and furious.

South and Central are both working long hours in putting in final preparations for the jousting. Both teams will enter the arena in the best of condition, and local fans are counting on the two Lima teams to emerge in "one-two" order.

Ada is the only quintet in Class A, which is looked upon to cause difficulty for the Lima aggregations, altho Central looks much stronger now than when they Collegiate town players were victorious at Central gym.

The question of supremacy between Central and South will be decided at the tournament, for there is practically no question but that the two teams will meet sometime during the meet. With the city and its standing "one each," the incentive of winning the trip to the state tournament in Columbus and the right to claim the scholastic title of Lima will spur the local gladiators to great lengths.

No less interested than the players are Lima cage fans. It would be impossible to even estimate the number that will journey to Bluffton Friday and Saturday, altho word from the tourney says that one-half of the spectators are expected to be from Lima.

THE Japs have the first essential of a great baseball player. This discovery was made by the American team of selected big leaguers while recently "baseballing in Japan."

(BY WAITE HOYT)
Pitcher for the New York Americans and World Series Hero.

The Japs have the first essential asset of the successful ball player, plenty of courage.

We player failed to find any of the Japs lacking in courage. This was particularly true of their chance at the bat.

Like American players, some of the Jap batters have the common habit in baseball of crowding the plate. In our country it is customary with a great many pitchers to use the "bean ball" to convey a message to the batter that he better not crowd the plate too closely.

There is never an intent on the part of the pitcher to hit the batter, he simply feels the batsman is taking undue advantage in crowding the plate, and he, in turn, resorts to the fast pitch to drive him back to his regular position.

We pitchers tried that stunt on a number of the Jap batters who had the habit of crowding the plate, but the ruse failed of its purpose. They refused to be driven back, and because of their great skill in dodging and tumbling they managed to avoid the bad pitches without any great trouble.

We soon came to admire this trait, and since our team was never pressed to win, we eliminated the practice of driving the Japs back by the bean ball, permitting them to crowd the plate as much as they desired.

It is the same with the infielders. No matter how hard the ball is hit they get in front of it, and break it down with some part of their anatomy, even tho it never touches their hands.

This trait of having no fear of a regular baseball I trace back to the way the players start the game. As youngsters the Japs play with a ball somewhat similar to our tennis ball, only a trifle larger. Such a ball does not hurt if it hits the player. Playing with such a ball the Japs naturally are educated to have no fear.

This trait stays with them when they begin to use the regular hard ball.

The Jap makes much less fuss when he is hit by a thrown or batted ball than we Americans. I hit a Jap batter with a fast ball on the hand and I feared several bones were broken. He never uttered a word of complaint and continued right along in the game.

Rather that is a great tribute to the gameness of the Japs or an awful knock to my fast one.

WEDNESDAY: The Japs prove hard losers.

GENARO IS FINED FOR ABSENCE
NEW YORK.—Out of his end of the purse for his championship bout with Pancho Villa at Madison Square Garden Thursday night, Frankie Genaro, New York flyweight must pay $3,000, win or lose, for his privilege.

Before being permitted to box any one in this state, Chairman Muldoon of the boxing commission announced today Genaro was made to agree to pay $3,000 to the American Fairplay Foundation for expenses it incurred in arranging for a bout between him and Villa in Newark last December for which Genaro failed to appear.

Can Lima St. Johns beat Delphos St. Johns?
This question will be settled Wednesday night when the two teams clash at the Y. M. C. A.

The visitors are coming to Lima with a great edge as regards dogs, and the fact that they captured first place in the Spencerville Invitational tournament two weeks ago, makes them one of the strongest teams on Lima St. Johns' schedule.

The South Side school, small in number but extremely large in fighting spirit, has played a schedule which would strike error to much stronger teams. On several occasions, an overwhelming, crushing defeat has been followed by a bit of brilliant playing in the next contest, which stamps the St. Johns outfit as a quintet, which in future years will take an important part in scholastic events in Lima.

All home games, previous to the coming contest, have been played at the St. Johns auditorium, and the attendance has been drawn mostly from the South Side. Because St. Johns expects to make a supreme effort to win over Delphos and because it was desired to play before fans of the scholastic teams, the Wednesday night fracas was scheduled at the Y. M. C. A.

TWO TOURNEYS AT MILWAUKEE

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Starting March 10, Milwaukee will be host to two national bowling tournaments—the American Bowling Congress tournament and the National Knights of Columbus tournament.

With reports that all records in point of entries will be broken by the A. B. C. this year, those in charge of the Knights of Columbus tourney report the entry list in the first national tournament of their organization will run well over the 600 team mark.

Chicago, with an entry list of over one hundred teams, leads the list in out-of-town entries in the K. of C. tourney. St. Louis is second on the list so far and will send over fifty teams.

Hundreds of Knights of Columbus from all over the country will participate in this tournament. Entries so far received are from Tulsa, Okla.; Los Angeles, San Paul, Minneapolis, Denver, San Francisco, Akron, O.; Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Kansas City, Mo., and Toledo.

Officers in charge announce they expect many entries from several other cities from which teams are entered in the A. B. C.

The prize committee has already secured cash and merchandise amounting to over two thousand dollars from the Milwaukee Knights of Columbus Bowling association.

Several benefits are being conducted to increase this prize list and it is believed that before March 10, the prize list will reach the ten thousand dollar mark.

Holding of the tournament on the same date as that of the A. B. C. tourney, will enable the K. of C. bowlers from far cities to take part in both events. Secretaries of the A. B. C. and the National K. of C. association have been working together and have arranged the schedule so as to make it possible for the bowlers to compete in the two tournaments and not necessitate a long stay in this city.

The A. B. C. tournament will be staged at the Milwaukee auditorium while the K. of C. meet will be held at the Knights of Columbus club house.

"Java Head" Is Coming Attraction

As the critics describe it, "Java Head," George Melford's latest Paramount picture is spectacular in its simplicity. This production, adapted by Waldemar Young from the novel by Joseph Hergesheimer, has been secured by the Quilna theatre. It is a love story with the eternal triangle again in evidence, but this time it is employed so peculiarly as to make the picture different from any seen here recently. This is George Melford's best production in which Beatrice Joy, Jacqueline Logan, Raymond Hatton, George Fawcett and many other play featured roles.

Salem, Mass., is the locale of the story, although several of the scenes are laid in China. The story, in brief, tells of the love of a young sea captain Gerret Ammidon, for a young Chinese maiden, Taou Yuen. Gerret returns from Shanghai with his Chinese wife to find Nettie Volla ready to marry him. Nettie suffers an injury, and Gerret leaves Taou Yuen to go to her. A rival of Gerret's and an opium smoker, tells Taou that her husband and Nettie are in love. The young wife orders him from the house and goes to Nettie's home to arrive just after her husband has left. Edward, the rival, is now a raving maniac and follows her. Here a dramatic finale, filled with thrills is reached.

The production is a photoplay of exceptional heart interest and appeal. It is dramatic, impressive and thrilling to the nth degree, and will be shown at the Quilna theatre beginning March 18.

STOCK EXCHANGE TRADING SPOTTY

Buying Of Rail Shares Strengthens Market, However

NEW YORK — Conflicting price movements characterized today's opening quotations on the New York stock exchange. Steel shares continued their advance of yesterday but Studebaker, Baldwin and some of the other popular industrials lost ground. Piggly Wiggly opened 5-8 higher at a new high record for the year and Coca Cola gained 1-8 points on overnight announcement of an extra dividend. Pan-American A. and B. dropped 1 and 1-4 points respectively, but California Petroleum gained 3-8 and Royal Dutch 2 points. Fresh buying was noted in a small number of railroad shares, gains of 1 to 2 points being recorded by Atlantic Coast Line, Great Northern preferred and international and Great Northern. California Petroleum extended its gain to 3-4 and Texas Gulf Sulphur advanced one. Stewart-Warner led the specialty list with a gain of 21-40 points. Houston Oil dropped 1-2 points and Pacific Oil 1-2. American ice fell back nearly two points. Gas shares were reactionary in response to lower prices for the raw and refined products. Foreign exchanges opened firm, demand sterling rising more than one cent to $4.71 5-16 and French francs selling around 8 1/2 cents.

The market presented a spotty appearance throughout the morning with trading on a more reduced scale than heretofore. Bear traders, aided by additional profit-taking, were able to uncover a number of weak spots especially in the oils, tobacco, sugars, equipments, chemicals, public utilities and some of the specialties which registered losses of one to two points. Kresge broke 3-4 points and Liggett and Meyers 5. Railroad shares were comparatively firm in response to the favorable showing made by the January earnings reports now being published. Buying of these shares coupled with a better demand for American Can, Utah Copper and select list of specialties, resulted in a general hardening of prices around noon. Call money opened at 5 percent.

Carl Ellis, 1054 Res-av writes: "Some time ago examination of candidates for the police force was being held and one of the examiners asked an applicant how far it was from Cridersville to Lima. The candidate thought a moment, then replied: 'I'm darned if I know the exact distance, but if that's to be my beat, to the devil with the job!'"

"While staying at Grandfather's while a boy," writes Bert Galbreath, 229 S. Perry-st., St. Marys, "one day at the table, he told me to take his cup and throw it out. I took the cup, coffee and all and threw it away. When I returned to the table, Grandfather asked where his cup was. I said, 'Why you told me to throw it out and I did.' Whereupon Grandfather informed me that it was only the coffee and the fly which he wished thrown away."

Susanna Galbreath, 229 S. Perry-st., St. Marys, relates this one. "My son who was but three years old, was very fond of eggs and would fret because I cooked his father two eggs and him but one. I told him 'too many eggs were not good for a little child. Later the father's work called him to Indiana, which made us both quite lonely. One morning I cooked my son two eggs for breakfast. He immediately asked if his father was home. When I said no, he said, 'Well, then I'm papa, because too many eggs are not good for children.'"

Arthur Reese, 715 S. Sugar-st., tells of an incident during the paving of E. Kibby-st. He was watching a colored man work. Suddenly he stopped working, looked up and said, "Xouse think Ies a colored man, don't you?" "Yes," I replied. "Wall, I is," was the reply.

"There was a circus in town one day," relates Mrs. Smith, Walker, 132 1-2 E. Spring-st., "and I was standing by a popcorn wagon on the show grounds, when a young couple came up. The girl said, 'Hiram, doesn't that popcorn smell good?' The young man replied, 'It sure does Sally, let's get up closer and then we can smell it better.'"

"A Quaker family once lived near my father's," tells Katherine James, 603 E. North-st. "One day one of the Quaker brothers came to call. He stayed and stayed and stayed. At last the host said, 'Brother, I am afraid this will never come back. Oh yes,' replied the guest, 'I have enjoyed myself very much and will be sure to come back.' 'But if these never go, how can these come back?' asked the host."

G. W. Hartnell, 560 S. Elizabeth-st., tells of a conversation overheard in a train between two enthusiastic bird fanciers. The argument evidently arose over the respective merits of their songsters. The first routed how one of his canaries could whistle the "Last Rose of Summer" until you could smell the roses. The second, not to be outdone said he had a bird that whistled the "Village Blacksmith" until the sparks flew out of his tail feathers.

"I boarded a city car at the corner of Jackson and McKibben-sts one day last week. I was standing on the rear end of the car. The car soon reached the B. & O. Railroad and the conductor got off to see if a train was approaching. As he was about to reenter the car an elderly woman came rushing up and asked, 'Does it make any difference which end I get on?' 'No difference,' he said, 'both ends stop.' This is submitted by George E. Rader, 677 N. Jackson-st.

Colonel Walter Smith visited a picture show Sunday afternoon. The film depicting Emile Cote in an explanation of his "Every day in every way" theory, was being shown.

A man sitting directly back of Smith was very attentive until Cote demonstrated how a man could cure himself of stammering, when he was heard to remark, "H-h-h-hell, I'd rather have a drink of w-w-w-whisky!"
